Chapter 1 – Harem Legion Organization

Chapter 1: Harem Legion Organization! (ハーレム軍団結成!)

Where is this place?

When I open my eyes, an unrealistic scene can be seen.

What I'm standing on is.... The top of a cloud?

Looking at it, it's a white fluffy body that surrounds my bare feet.

The soft, chilly touch of the cloud makes me realize that this world isn't a dream.

Just some time ago, I was enjoying anime and amusing myself– .

Why am I in such a place?

“Welcome. To Heaven.”

The voice of a dignified woman is heard with the feeling of the divine kind.

Turning towards the voice, there was a beautiful young girl with blonde hair and blue eyes you could mistake for goddess-sama from the world's myths.

I wonder if it's some anime character cosplay?

The girl was clad in fluttery clothing separated from the transient world.

“Excuse me. Where is this? Or perhaps I should say, who are you?”

“E~tto... Hey, hey, weren't you listening to me? As I said before, this is Heaven. You have been carefully selected by your examination results to go to a different world!”

Sticking out her large chest, the girl continues.

“And now.....About your other question, I am pleased that you asked about that. My name is Aphrodite, the Goddess of Beauty! The navigating existence that will send you off to another world!”

“.....How serious are you?”

Wait, I don't quite understand what is being said.

Goddess? Different world?

What is this girl saying?

“.....Well. It's an understandable reaction. A piece of junk like you would be confused, dying a dog's death and then being sent to a different world! Understanding this type of thing is faster by experiencing it instead of trying to explain. Try to pray for the status screen to open in your mind!”

“.....”

While not satisfied in my mind, I decide to obey Aphrodite.

At which point...

Suddenly, the words appeared clearly in my consciousness.

Reading the sentences carefully, it looks like a status screen from a game world.

“What? This is.....”

In my mind, the status screen that appeared fits perfectly with no signs of disappearing.

It is a strange feeling that cannot be experienced in the real world.

At first I thought it to be suspicious, a self-proclaimed goddess saying ‘Different world’ but I can feel a tinge of credibility.

“Fufufu. Monster Tamer? It’s an occupation that it’s doubtful it could even knock down a slime on it’s own. My condolences.”

“..... Come again?”

“Here’s a good thing. I will you teach specially! The different world that you are being sent to, <Adelheid>, when you are born there is a job change to suit your aptitude! By the way, your profession of Monster Tamer is baggage weight – no use at all! It's a useless profession that suits someone who was an anime-watching NEET back on earth."

"....."

A-annoying.

This woman, Aphrodite or something, it is without doubt that if she closed her mouth she would be a peerless beauty but her various behaviours are a shame.

And I am not a NEET.

While it's true I play games every day, It can be seen that I am still a student actively attending high school.

Alright.

Let's reorganise the current situation.

Coming here, the feeling of reality has finally emerged.

Apparently, the place where I am standing is really "Heaven". Aphrodite seems to be here with the intention of coming to send me to a different world.

I have no idea how it became like this, this realistic unfavourable development. It seems as though the possibility of a shocking encounter is low.

By the way, it's written in my status screen, what is this 'Capsule Ball'?

Capsule Ball – Grade G – Active

(By throwing and hitting the <Basic Species> of a monster, there is a chance of the enslavement skill occurring. Once the enslavement has been activated, the monster can no longer cause harm to the master.

Acquisition conditions

- Monster Tamer Level 1 or more

The moment after I thought about it.

A new sentence emerged on the status screen.

It seems that questioning is a trigger for the status screen to show the effects of skill.

When I pray for <Capsule Ball> in my mind , a translucent sphere the size of a baseball is created.

The design reminds me of the nostalgic gachapon capsules from my childhood.

"Capsule Ball is one of the basic skills of a Monster Tamer. When hit by a thrown ball, there's a chance for a monster to be enslaved."

"Hmmm. I wonder....."

Knowing so, I want to do various experiments.

She brought me to a place i don't understand where it is, and abused me.

I decide to throw the capsule ball at Aphrodite to serve as my revenge.

"..... Yes?" (tl: Hai?)

Aphrodite lets out a small cry as I throw a capsule ball.

Although I threw it quite slowly, the capsule ball superbly hit Aphrodite's body.

"Owch-!" Wait just a minute... What did you do!? However you put it, as I'm not a monster, there is no meaning in throwing the capsule ball which can only capture monsters at me....."

Immediately following that, something strange happened.

"Kyaaaaaaaaaaaaa!? No, no! Wait! It's a lie!? Why!?"

The capsule ball that I threw suddenly emits a dazzling light and Aphrodite is sucked in.

Result.

Before she knows it, Aphrodite's body enters the small capsule ball.

"Kora-! Let me out! This is blasphemy against God!" (tl; kora – oi, hey!)

Aphrodite randomly pulls out a pillow and begins to knock on the wall of the used capsule with a 'don don' sound.

By the way, Aphrodite who is inside the ball has shrunk down to eraser size.

"..... I'd really love to, however "

I don't know the method to get you out.

"UUUuuu. Please! I'm begging you, take me out this instant!....."

Aphrodite has teary-eyes.

Speaking honestly, I can't make heads or tails of the situation. (tl; not a literal translation.)

When I thought I was suddenly called to Heaven, I was told to go to a different world and was suddenly made into a monster tamer.

However.

With everything said and done, I can say this catchphrase.

Kami-sama! Get!

Chapter 2 – The First Battle

Chapter 2 -The First Battle

Before I knew it, there were wide grassy plains which continue as far as the eye can see.

I was skeptical, but seeing it with my own eyes but somehow or another, it seems I truly have been summoned to another world.

The evidence that this world is different from earth lies in the different plants and the sun that lights up the sky, is blue.

By the way.

What should be done?

If I reference knowledge from games, the first step should be to 'aim for the city.'

Due to my good fortune, I can see people moving to and fro along the road around me.

If I were to follow this road, someday won't I reach a street where people live?

"..... It's a monster."

When I walked along the path that was cleared momentarily, I discovered a less than 50cm height green muscled chibi.

It seems it hasn't seen me from the other side.

What should I do? Should I fight?

Speaking of Goblins, in game-worlds they are monsters that appear quite early in the opening.

It may be the most suitable opponent for a test battle.

However.

The Occupation I gained upon being summoned to this world is 'Demon Tamer'

I have a hunch it's different from the usual hitting from the front.

If this was an online game, there would be a navigating tutorial that explains everything but...

Reality does not follow one's whims. (tl; not literal.)

".....No. Wait"

I have the clever idea of using the Capsule Ball.

Soon after, a translucent ball is summoned into my palm.

“Ooh. As I thought, it is there.”

Looking carefully, the beautiful blonde Aphrodite’s figure can be seen inside the capsule ball.

“YO ! It seems like we meet again!”

“.....Fue?”

Aphrodite was blinking in surprise as she was sitting with her arms around her knees with an expression saying ‘Don’t know what’s what’. (tl; like this)

“Hey! You! What.... What’s with this!?”

“No. At that time I was bad. I didn’t mean any ill-will. Forgive me.”

“あ@kjb×じやsJschんあいぐすいッ!”

Aphrodite is shaking as she grabs my collar while issuing sounds that do not become words.

“How should I put it, making noise in this place! We’ll be noticed by the monster on the other side”

“Haa? A monster?”

Aphrodite finally releases my clothes and directs her gaze over in the monster’s direction.

“Monster. Hah-! At best it’s a goblin.”

“At best... Is it possible that Aphrodite is incredibly strong, by any chance?”

“It’s only natural. Am I not a goddess? It is not possible for me to fall behind a monster!”

“Oh. That’s reassuring...! In that case, to begin with, can you get rid of the goblin?”

“It can’t be helped-. When it’s finished, you’ll hear various complaints!”

When Aphrodite face towards the direction of the goblin *tokotoko * and started walking, she thrust her hand towards the sky in an exaggerated manner.

“Pitiful lamb. Receive the judgement of the original goddess of beauty, Aphrodite! God’s Breath!”

She speaks a cool signature phrase.

However—

From those words she spoke cheerfully.

Far from God’s breath, not even a soft breeze blows.

“R-Ridiculous! God’s breath! God’s breath!”

Aphrodite continues to speak the skill name, but no change can be seen in the surroundings.

On the contrary, due to the large noise(her shouts), it resulted in this place being suspected by the goblin.

“Souta..... H-Hwelp me..... Hwelp me.....” (tl: 「ソータ.....。だ、だずけ.....だずけで.....」)

“.....”

The goblin was attracted by the crying Aphrodite whose clothes were fluttering.

This goddess really... Does not seem to be reliable for anything.

Chapter 3 – Absolute Control

Chapter 3 – Absolute Control

In the end.

Aphrodite failed to take care of the goblin, so I decided to do it.

It does not seem to evolve to the level of the superior human being.

As I made use of my superior constitution to plant a kick onto it's head, the goblin did not move immediately.

I do not think it can be defeated with one blow.

The demon trainer occupation that is said to be the weakest, the feeling is weighing down my shoulders.

“Uu~. Why must I go through such an experience.....”

Aphrodite weakly falls toward the ground while becoming teary-eyed.

“Etto.. Aphro-san? Don't be discouraged.”

“Who has an afro!? As you can see, I'm smooth and silky!”

“.....O, Ou. Is that so?”

Opening her eyes wide, Aphrodite stands and face me. * and that!* she shows her hair towards me. I see.

Shown in in such proximity, I can see that her long hair is indeed smooth and silky. What's more, it smells good.

By all means, if you want to call me by my abbreviation, I will allow you to call me D. It's better than reluctantly calling me Afro .

“ I understand. So continuing the talk from earlier, why did you completely lose to that goblin? I don't really understand in detail but aren't Gods very strong?”

“Uu..... This.....”

Aphrodite mumbles while averting her eyes.

It seems the events from before are considerably embarrassing for her.

“ I realized the reason during the time when I checked you and my status just now.

Although I had forgotten, it seems like the ability to release the god's power is only limited to heaven. It's because I cannot use god's breath which can cause "all things in nature" to turn to dust."

" ... You had used such a dangerous magic on the goblin opponent?"

I gave a tsukkomi to her as I check the status terminal screen.

It seems that a monster tamer can verify the status of an enslaved monster.

Compared to the original status, aside from vitality the numerical values were falling across the board.

"I had tried reasoning about today's incident. There is a < Absolute control> under your status divine protection?

"Ah. Certainly. It was like that."

Capsule Ball's impact is too strong that till now I am not worried about it.

Absolute Control – Grade – Details Unknown

I opened the status terminal screen and as I confirm the wall of text under divine protection, some unusual text flowed up.

"Have you realized it? The monster tamer is unfavourable for it's condition of 'Only being able to control basic Monsters' is overruled by the Divine Protection 'Absolute Control'."

『Nothing but basic demon race can be controlled』rule has been overthrown."

"Wait. Any race can be contracted? For example, can a human being be contracted?"

"Of course. It was even effective against me who is a god. I do not think a human being would be able to resist."

Why in the world can I contract a human as a Monster Familiar.

The ability that I obtained somehow or another... is probably nothing but a bug in this world, I guess.

Chapter 4 – Returning to the original world?

Returning to the original world?

The highlight so far–

I who was summoned to another world seem to have a ridiculous cheat ability.

“Just a moment, Souta!? What is your status!?”

When I am at my wits end, Aphrodite raises her voice in wonder. (tl; 俺が頭を抱えているとアフロディーテは驚きの声をあげる.)

When I open the status screen, my status had risen like crazy.

“How.... I suddenly increased in levels by a lot. Are goblins actually an existence that give a lot of experience?”

“That shouldn’t be!? If such a monster pops out no-where, it will be scary!”

Well, what is it then?

If just one goblin caused the increase in levels by 500, the levels would be inflate. (tl; ゴブリンを1匹倒しただけで500以上もレベルが上がることになれば、途端にレベルのインフレが起こってしまうことになる。)

If it’s like that, only 1 thing comes to mind.

“If that’s the case, then is it related to the events in heaven?”

Immediately following my words,

Aphrodite clasps her hands together, making a clapping sound as if to agree.

“That’s it! When I was successfully enslaved, you were awarded with a huge amount of experience so your level has risen. Well, receiving experience points from the goddess of beauty, that much is to be expected, yo.”

“.....”

Aphrodite, with a proud expression, puffs out her large chest.
Why are you making such an unpleasant face here?

Appraisal eye – Class B – Active
(The skill which ascertains items and the abilities of organisms that exist in Adelheid.)

Acquisition condition

- Spiritual power of more than 2000

I've learned that contracting with Aphrodite has brought about a large amount of experience, it seems.

I was late to notice it, but that new skill Appraisal Eyes has been added to my status.

"Besides Spiritual Power, I feel the others are crap for my level."

"Hmmm. It's inevitable, isn't it? The reason that monster tamer is called the weakest job is due to it's low stats, it appears.

But isn't it fortunate that Souta's level rose? Fortune in misfortune! Perhaps there's a chance to return to the original world earlier than expected."

"? What do you mean?"

"Ara? Did I not say? You were summoned here as the hero to save Adelheid?
Therefore you can't return to the original world until you rescue mankind from the Demon King (Maou) who is predicted to revive in this world. You were sent off to Adelheid with such a rule!

"....."

Hearing such a thing for the first time is too much!
It would generally be said before you send someone to the other world!

"I want to make sure..... The Demon King is not yet in this world, no?"

"Well. It's said that the revival is only a matter of time.
Is it approximately five years ago, I wonder? In preparation for the Demon King's revival, the God's send in a hero from another Earth."

"....."

How extraordinary.
That besides me, there were other Earthlings summoned elsewhere.....!

Still, Subjugation of the demon king.
Though it's a standard RPG development, I'm reluctant.

Chapter 5 – Other World's Harem Plan

Other World's Harem Plan

"Although, I have a single doubt. For example, in the event that I defeat the Demon King and return to Earth, will my abilities as a monster tamer disappear?"

"Eetto. In that situation, the ability should be taken over. It's impossible for the ability obtained to be taken away, even for a God like me."

".....Then, I am able to take the monster's from Capsule Ball back with me to Earth?"

"Well, such a thing is possible. But I believe that in order not to let you abuse your powers, we gods will observe at fixed intervals."

"....."

I, after receiving the words from Aphrodite, make 1 big decision from the depths of my heart.

".....Yosh. It's decided."

" ? What's decided?"

"The aim. The aim for living in this other world has been decided."

"I see. An admirable intention. It's the determination to defeat the Demon King immediately, isn't it?"

"No. It's different?"

"Huh-?"

" Per.. Perhaps you are the type who thinks about not wanting to go back to your original world? "

"No. Of course I love Japan's anime and games and I plan to return to Earth."

".....Then what is it? Did you not hear what I just said? There is no other way to return to your original world besides defeating the Demon King."

Due to Aphrodite hounding at me, I reluctantly explain it.

"Listen. As I will only explain it once listen well, okay? My goal is to use this ability <Absolute Control> in order to take a beautiful girl from this other world back to Earth!"

Yes?”

Hearing my idea, Aphrodite has an extra large question mark floating above her head.

According to Aphrodite, it seems that even after returning to Earth, my ability as a monster tamer will not disappear.

If that's the case, getting a beautiful girl in the capsule ball, it's probably possible to take them back to Earth.

“I say. I'm serious? Building a harem in another world is a man's irreplaceable romance! However, I have no intention of staying in a world with neither Air conditioning or Junk food for a long time! I'll defeat the demon king. However, that's after building my ideal harem in the different world!”

“I'm, I'm understanding your meaning less and less! Such a thing cannot be permitted ethically! Primarily, I who is a god, will not stay silent!”

“Isn't it good?”

“What?”

“You can't return to heaven until the Demon King is defeated? Because, until I've built the best Harem in the world; I don't intend to defeat the Demon King?”

“.....Tsu!?”

Realizing the meaning of my words Aphrodite has a look of astonishment.

Aphrodite's status certainly may be strong in the heavens, but in this world there's a limiter and she is weakened.

Speaking of which, whether she will go back to heaven or not, as for now, she is completely taking part in my activities.

“Does D want to return to heaven? If so, don't you want to co-operate with my plan?”

“Don't be an idiot! For me who is a god, it's impossible to help with such a vulgar plan!”

“Is that so? Perhaps you'll remain in this world your whole life..... You'll be fine.

When Aphrodite thought quietly for a while, a refreshing smile surfaced on her face as if it was unbounded before long.

“It, It can't be helped! Although I'm unwilling..... I'll co-operate with Souta to make a harem!”

“Alrighty. I thought you’d say so!”

When I offered my hand, Aphrodite accepted.

If there are abandoned gods in this world, there will also be gods waiting to be picked up.

(tl: 世の中には捨てる神もあれば、拾う神もいるということなのだろう。)

Suddenly getting summoned into the other world , I whose path has closed in an instant open up into a straight bright future.

In this way, I and Kami-sama come together for the <Other World’s Harem Plan>.

Chapter 6 – Absolute Control

Absolute Control

Following the road, I walked the grassy plain for around 1 hour looking for a town.

In this grassy plain, it seems like the monster inhabiting it is that 1 goblin type.

According to Aphrodite.

It seems that the experience gained from making a contract as a monster tamer is the same as if a monster was defeated.

That's why I decided to excessively hunt goblins.

Aphrodite

Goblin's (×18)

It's probably because I had risen too much levels in the beginning huh..

Although I caught 18 goblins, a rise in level is not seen.

The goblins who are caught became eraser-sized roam around inside the capsule ball.

After verifying the capsule ball skill, I come to an understanding that somehow or another, I can only summon 1 of them.

“Gobuu-! Gobuu-!” (x3)

Although only 1 can be summoned, I am able to enslave several more monsters.

That’s why, as for now—.

Some of the 18 goblins walked around in the capsule ball.

The capsule ball boasts a large amount of land for the miniaturized monsters. It seems like due to the space, around 1000 of them can fit into it.

“May I have some of your time? I have some thoughts after looking at my status?”

“.....What about it?”

“Is there not some sort of limit for the number of monsters a monster tamer can enslave?”

“Of course a limit exists. The basic one should increase by 1 for each time a level increases by 10.”

“.....I see”

In other words, the number of demons whom I can enslave at the present time is 56?

Eh?

Perhaps..... Aren’t they already cheat class at the present moment?

“Apart from that, Souta. It was troubling me from a little while ago, can you not summon the goblins you caught? I think with more companions, battle becomes easier.”

“Hmmm. Right now, I’m not having much trouble with fighting.”

As for the occupation called monster tamer, the status seems to be low generally, but—. Nonetheless, my level is overkill in this grassland.

Thinking about it now, receiving the grace from having the status increase, meant the first goblin was defeated in 1 kick.

“Aah. No need to worry. The monster tamer can order the contracted monster freely.”

“.....I see. Was there such an effect?”

Aphrodite says so with a nonchalant look as though it was none of her business.

However, does this girl not have the thing called wariness?

If what she says is true, about wanting to do ero things with this goddess as much as i want....

It's a good opportunity to have a little fun.

"Then, as a trial. D. 'Turn around the spot, will you?

".....Yes? You, are you making a fool of me? The female goddess of love and beauty, Aphrodite-sama will abide by such a rule of yours... ? Eh??!"

In the middle of her words, Dee spun suddenly. *SFX: Kuru Kuru

Aphrodite who is wearing a dress overflowing with elegance, has an unexpectedly short skirt.

"Kyaa-!?"

Aphrodite's rotation creates a small wind which gently raises her skirt, revealing her pink underwear.

When I issued the order I did not in the slightest expect that. Aphrodite has become teary eyed.

"Uu. UUuuuu. Souta you idiot! What did you do!?"

"No. It's my bad. It really was to test if commanding was possible. It's not that I want to do any strange commands. It's like that, so don't get angry."

"Certainly, if you limit to just this time, it's not like I will not disapprove...."

"Only this time?"

"By any chance, you have no intentions to give me, the goddess, lewd orders, am I right?"

Aphrodite was red to her ears and panicked.

Hou hou.

Although she's called a goddess, she still has knowledge in that area.

"Is that okay ? I certainly said that I'd participate in the making of Souta's harem! But.... but, I didn't say I'm entering myself personally as a member!"

".....Is it a flag?"

"No, there's no such thing! ! Stupid Souta!"

She hit me with all her force.

Certainly, there is no doubts about the fact that Aphrodite is a peerless beautiful girl. But adding her in as a Harem member has somewhat a different feeling to it.

It's the feeling of a friend rather than a lover.

Therefore, I was caught up in the moment a little this time. I will reflect.

How far can a human walk?

Aphrodite did not show up after hiding in the capsule a while ago.

“Listen. Souta. From now on, I will be basically spending my time in the ball. If you need anything, just call me out.”

That’s what Aphrodite said.

Previously, you hated entering the ball but what in the world has happened?

That’s what I’m thinking, but there are also various complex circumstances currently present.

It seems like her lost status returns when she gets inside the capsule ball.

No.

Even I am skeptical about it?

From what I’ve just heard, it seems like the capsule ball has a strong healing effect that can remove all of your abnormal states

By entering that sort of thing, there is a possibility of her stats lowering “curse” weakening.

Furthermore, when inside, the environment has a different common sense, you don’t get hungry nor thirsty, and all kinds of fatigue/stress won’t be accumulated.

When you peek into the capsule ball, you will see Aphrodite being surrounded by goblins, with a peaceful expression, in a peaceful slumber. Her breathing rising carefreely/easygoing.

Politely bringing her favourite pillow and hay into the ball, she made a bed

With the exception of not being able to freely go in and out, the capsule ball seems to be a comfortable place.

“Hey, I can see the town.”

Due to the promise with her that I will wake her up when I see a town, I let Aphrodite out of the capsule ball.

“Mmm~. Five more minutes.....”

“You asked me to wake you up, don’t go half-asleep”

By the way, while Aphrodite was sleeping, I increased the number of goblins to 37.

I feel anxious when I think if it's okay to catch that many goblins, but when I see the Goddess I feel I can rely on her.

【Trading Center Saint Bell】

Those are the words written in the town signboard.

Aphrodite said.

When a person from the earth is summoned, they will learn the other world language without exception.

I've read the letters on the signboard without any problems.

My attention was attracted by a cart being pulled by a huge turtle.

"Hey D, can you hear me? What's that vehicle? It's been running around the city"

In the city, a variety of monsters such as goblins and orcs were present in addition to the rock turtle.

They have (Working) displayed in their head.

It seems like in this world, the demon is generally used for labor work.

".....dunno ?"

" 'Dunno?' You say....."

"Good boy. Souta. It's a mistake to think that I know everything because I'm a Goddess. !Do you know that this world has hundreds of classes of monsters? I don't even have experience in the world below, I won't remember each and every name of monsters you know?!

I practically do not have any experience descending down to earth and I cannot remember each and one of the names of the monsters! "

"I do know that, but....."

Why do you look so triumphant?

It's been a bit late to wonder, but is this goddess totally incompetent on the ground?

As I wonder, I checked Aphrodite's status.

Hey, under your skills columns, it seems like there is a word "Unknown" written there. What does it mean?

"Ah, that's because I use "Skill Concealment". My skills can't be seen by others. There are skills that have that kind of effect.."

"Ooh~. As expected from a God-race, you have those kind of skills"

Even she's weakened she's still indeed a Goddess

Little by little, I'll try to understand how to live in this world
Though it's a little, I understood "trying to live in this world"

In Adelheid, first of all, above everything else, skills meant everything

If it's possible to borrow the power of Aphrodite from the God race, my life in the other world would be easier.

"Y-yeah right. Ahaha. ahahaha"

"Hey, why did you avert your eyes?"

"Uhhh, to tell you the truth...majority of my skills were sealed off by a 'curse', because I'm a God that descended to the land. That's why I might not have what you expect from me Souta"

".....I see. Well, I expected that you would say that."

Aphrodite has mentioned that the purpose of sending earthlings to the other world is to
"Subjugate the Demon King"

If the God race can use full force in this world, then they should be able to do it on their own.

"By the way Souta. I have a question to ask."

“Hm? What is it?”

“Just because I said that I can’t use my skill in here.... You couldn’t be thinking of abandoning me ?”

“.....”

With tears flowing out of her eyes as she look at me worriedly.

When I didn’t say anything, Aphrodite visibly shuddered.

“I told you that in advance!! I forgot to mention but if you do something cruel to me, you will not die a decent death!

Because I will curse you with all my might and send you to hell! Aphrodite-chan is the heaven’s number one when it comes to cursing other people! It’s because of my exclusive reputation!”

“ I get it. As I won’t throw you away! AS I WON’T THROW YOU AWAY, DON’T STICK TO ME SO MUCH!”

Good grief...what an unreliable Goddess-sama.

I have to acquire knowledge without the support of this useless Goddess-sama.

I decided to look for a job in a different world.

Chapter 8 – Adventurers Guild

Adventurers guild

According to knowledge gained from the world of games—.

When looking for a place to work in the different world, there is only one place to look!

That is the adventurer's guild.

Even if the aim is to defeat the Demon King and return to Earth, the first priority is raising funds and strengthening our forces.

Fortunately, according to what a kind oba-san (Auntie) who was in town said, there is a place called 'Adventurers Guild' in Adelheid.

The Adventurers Guild was exceptionally big, surrounded by other stone buildings.

The people inside impartially had armaments such as swords and axes – indeed adventurer-like.

Aphrodite pulled on the sleeve of my uniform for some reason, and was glued to my back.

“Oy. What is it?”

“W-well..... We are being watched by lots of people! I'm being watched!!”

“.....There is no helping it. With such an appearance, everyone would pay attention.”

Being summoned suddenly into the other world, I haven't changed from my highschool uniform.

Aphrodite is still wearing the same clothes as she wore in heaven.

“Oi oi. What. That erotic appearance of a nee-chan.”

“ A girl who makes you drunk with excitement just by looking at her.

From the appearance of the men, it feels as though they are admiring Aphrodite's beauty rather than watching us both.

However. After talking about that, Aphrodite immediately got carried away and they became silent.

“Good day. Adventurer-sama?”

I corresponded with the receptionist onee san at the counter.

Chloe Grave

Race: Cat-girl.

Age: 18

According to the judgment skill, her name seems to be Chloe.
She has a small sized body and the girl has a graceful atmosphere and semi-long raven black hair.

And..... Chloe-chan has cat ears on the top of head.

Mwaa~!

This is any guys dream, this bishoujo in the different world!

Chloe-chan is cuute.

Get!

I want to take her home immediately! (TI; The word used for 'take her home immediately' can mean a one-night stand, or taking a girl home from a bar.)

".....Souta. What are you thinking about?"

I heard a voice with killing intent coming behind and my body experienced violent pain.
Turning back, the scowling face of Aphrodite, as if it was deformed, stared at me.

What carelessness!

It appears that Aphrodite has captured my ulterior motives perfectly.

"A.. Ano. Today, May I know your business with the guild today?"

Note that Literally, it is very polite

"Etto, I am looking for a job. Is there any job that I am able to do?"

"Understood. Is this your first time using this guild?"

"Yes, actually I had just reached this street."

"I will humbly partake the consultation with you. I am required to issued to you a adventure card for usage in this establishment.

As I am going to perform the registration process, will you please register your name on this paper. If you are unable to write your name, it is possible to call for a representative."

"No, it's okay."

I wrote my name on the paper which was presented by the receptionist Onee-san.

It is a wonder that I am able to write words smoothly in the alternate world.

"Eeto, Kazehaya Souta sama. I will now process your guild registration. In a situation where you lost this guild card, a new one will be issued to you with handling charges. Therefore, please take care of it.

“ Thank you very much”

Kazehaya Souta

Adventurer Rank: G

It was written on the Guild card which I had received.

“ As this is your first time using the guild card, I will explain about the establishment simply.”

In a experienced tone, the receptionist Chloe-chan continued speaking.

“ I will explain about the adventure guild simply and the establishment where adventurers offer their services to quest requested by countries, individuals etc.
The content of the quest ranges from monster subjugation to the search of an unaccounted cat. When you accumulate your achievements, you will increase your guild rank. Thereafter, the range of quest that you are able to partake will increase. “

“I see. By the way, speaking of the adventurer’s rank, what should I do to be able to rank up?”

“Yes. There is no other way to increase your rank other than getting judged by the guild about your 『Aptitude アリ』

:.... Ohh. What an extremely loose condition” .

With a cute smile, the raven black hair girl said.

In short, even if you have splendid achievements, if it is not recognised by the people above, it will not possible to promote to a higher rank.

Please stop introducing a system to mimic reality into this Game~ish world....

“Souta-sama. It is also possible to immediately accepts request from now on. Please search for quests pasted on the Guild Board over there that you are able to accept bring them to the counter and wait.”

I stood before the billboard pointed by Kuroe-chan and started looking for moderate jobs.

☆Subjugation Type Quest

Subjugation of Wolfs

Required R : G

Success conditions: Subdue five wolves.

Reward: 4000 Kol

Repeat: Allowed

Subjugation of Goblins

Required R : G

Success conditions: Subdue five goblins.

Reward: 4000 Kol

Repeat: Allowed

☆Search Type Quest

Collect Medicinal Grass

Required R: G

Success conditions: Bring back 10 medicinal grass.

Reward: 6000 Kol

Repeat: Allowed

So based on my present adventurer rank, the quest that I can take part seems to be of 3 types huh?

There are other quest that I can accept too. But the rewards are too low or the requirements are unclear. Therefore I had removed them from my selections.

“ Erm. I wish to do the subjugation quest but how do I show proofs that I had defeated the demons?”

“Details are in a small pamphlet which will be passed over to you when you accept the quest. Basically, it is necessary to remove and collect the defeated demon’s parts.

“.... Understood.”

Presently the demons that I had met, without defeating them I had used the capsule ball to make them my comrades.

I see, This time should I go for the search quest?

“These quests do not have any time limit. Souta-sama, if you wish, it is possible to apply for all of them at the same time. How about it?”

“If that’s the case, please let me apply for all of them”

“ I have acknowledged your request. And this is the 《Beginner Set 》 which will be offered to people who registered at the guild for the first time. Please use it as you wish.

“Thank you very much”

I received the 《Beginner’s Set 》which seems to be packed as a necessary item for adventurers

Chapter 9 – Let's try summoning demons

Let's try summoning demons

In order to do the quest, we/ I turned up at the area 《Gasuur Forest》.

It seems like there is a raw material 《Medicinal Grass》 grows en mass within this region which is a vital component for the manufacture of Recovery items.

“Ne! Souta! How far out are you walking to? Didn't we reached Gasuur Forest a long time back?”

“ It's no good. We must walk in deeper.”

“.... Why??”

“If we were to encounter other adventurers while fighting the monsters as requested , we will definitely be embroiled up into unnecessary troubles.”

Now the way to differentiate the enemy goblins and my allied goblins is only through using the skill 『Judgement Eye.』

However.

This Judgement Eye skill is only obtained after acquiring Aphrodite which resulted in gaining a huge amount of experience.

Even if I summon the goblins with great pains, if they are being suppressed by adventurers other than me, it will become become a sad outcome.

“Uuu~. Can you slacken your pace for I am tired from walking. As I am tired from walking, can I return back into the ball?”

After Aphrodite informs her intention, she on her own accord return back into the capsule ball.

Although I had confirmed it during the inspection previously, it seems like it is possible for the deployed monsters to return back to the capsule ball on their own accord if they are close to the master.

“Yoshi. Is this area good?”

After I had moved into the inner part of the forest where there are no presences of humans around, I 『Summon』the goblin within my heart.

Goblin LV 1 (Slave)

Proof of Goblin subjugation is located at which area.....

Goblin Loincloth Grade G
(An old rag worn by the Goblin. Intense Smell/ Stink)

According to the pamphlet which I had obtained from the Guild, the subjugation proof item for Goblins seems to be the item wrapped around the hips

Intense Stink.....

I do not want to know this kind of information.

Granted, I cannot bring myself to rip off my friendly goblins' pants.

As I thought, this time round, it seems like it's best if I emphasis on proceed with the 《Medicinal Grass》quest.

After deciding that, using the same trick as before, I summon the goblins in succession.

「「GOBU! GOBU!」」

Without a moment's delay, I summon the whole army of 37 goblins.

Now, this is at present my full force.

Strictly speaking, there is still 1 more person. But the goddess is now in the capsule ball sleeping carefreely, so let's forget about her.

Even you say that they are small monsters, if you were to gather this many, the power will increase considerably.

I who is accompanied by over 30 goblins, will for sure be seen as a suspicious person from the side.

"Yoshi. Goblins! Listen to me."

I raise my voice so as to let the goblins around me being able to hear my voice.

"From now on, let's gather the 《Medicinal grass》drawn in this book. When discovered, immediately gather that the tree's root over there"

「「GOBU! GOBU!」」

The goblins who had heard my words raise their voices with their arms thrust into the air. And scatter like spider-lings into the depths of the forest.

.....These goblins, do they really understand human language?

Although I do have some uneasiness, it has become known that I am the only person who is gathering the medicinal grass.

This time, the success of the quest is highly dependant on the capabilities of the goblins.

My aim is to use human wave tactics to get rich!

I who is praying for the goblins to return safely, send them off.

Chapter 10 – Let's gather Medicinal Grass in the forest

Let's gather Medicinal grass in the forest.

After forcing them to gather the medicinal grass, around 2 hours has elapsed.
It can be said that from the conclusion that getting the goblins to help is a success.

At the tree root that I had designated lies a huge mound of medicinal grass.

Medicinal Grass Grade F

(A standard raw material used in the creation of Recovery items)

“Yoshi, It's almost time to pack up and return back to the village huh.”

More than 50 of Medicinal grass has been gathered at the tree root.
Even if I coveted for more Medicinal grass than this, not being able to carry them back to the Adventurer's Guild is also meaningless.

I who tried following the Goblins to search for the Medicinal grass, till now couldn't even find a single one.

As expected, this is what they called sense of the wild?

(TL: I am very sure there is a term for people who had grown up in the wild. More like 6th sense in the wild.)

I who was forever staying indoors playing net games during my time on Earth, the difficulty level for finding medicinal grass is somewhat high for me.

Ahh, But it does not mean that I do not have any harvest at all, okay?

I who was wandering around in the midst of the forest, has successfully captured 15 more goblins.

At present, there are now 52 contracted goblins.

Goblins who move about in huge groups, became easy prey for me to fish.

If this pace continues to tomorrow, I believe I am able to create an army of goblins

However.

There is something which worries me.

Although I had waited for the goblins to come back since a while back, even till now there are about 10 goblins yet to return.

“.... Oh. They are finally coming back huh?”

As the thicket * Goso Goso* moved, I felt a sigh on relief.

But.

To my surprise, the one jumping out of the grass thicket is a monster different from the goblin.

That monster which resembles a wolf possess black fur.

It's Level is 3.

Compared to the goblins that I contracted with, it's a little higher.

It's teeth is still dyed with fresh red blood.

At that point of time, I intuitively understood the reasons for the missing goblins.

「It can't be. This wolf ate.....!？」

No matter how long the time elapsed, they are not going to return for they are beaten by the wolf monsters in front of me.

Unforgivable.

I WILL PUNISH YOU!

“Gurruuu”

The number of enemies is 5.

As they surrounded me, their growls increases in volume.

Fufufu.

These dogs plan to win with just these standards.

From the viewpoint of numbers, you have a long way to go to dominate me.

“Go! Goblins!”

As expected, the goblins based on my instructions jump out to fight.

Exceeding 30 goblins, they rushed towards the wolves as their targets.

As one would expect, they did not consider receiving this much attacks huh.
The wolves who are being surrounded by the goblin army became seemingly frightened.

And then.
Victory was decided within 1 minute.

It seems like originally the during the battle of the goblins and wolves, there is a huge difference in the individual battle capabilities of between them.

The wolves win in physical ability while the goblins win in intelligence. But their comprehensive ability is on par.

Although we won through number, I have a 1 shot kill skill 《Capsule Ball》.

Some time ago, the 5 wolves who bark Kyan Kyan , resulted in entering the capsule ball.

Although with just successfully collecting Medicinal grass is sufficient, the adventure this time, I foresee the challenges I will have in the future.

In particular, I want to prioritise strengthening my monsters.

As it is, when I instruct the goblins to move out to collect medicinal grass, they will be guaranteed to become the wolves' prey.

As much as possible I must quickly create a counter measure for the area around here.

As I send the goblins back into the capsule ball after finishing their roles, thought about that issue.

Chapter 11 – The Captive Vampire Maid

The captive vampire maid

On the other hand, during the same time when Souta is using the goblins to gather medicinal grass.

There is a demon dashing through Gassur forest.

The name of the girl is Caroline Button.

If it's a guy, anyone would turn their heads towards this voluptuous, silver haired red eyed bishoujo.

Demon.

300 years before now, Adelheid (change that as you like) gained hegemony, it is the generic name for the race that put humanity under its control.

It is said that demons who held great power sometimes defeat divine beings.

Both of them have had a standoff for a long time.

“Kuso! Wait! This Vampire!”

Presently

Caroline was being finished off by numerous men who are holding weapons.

Saintbell which was visited by Souta is blessed with the buying and selling of specialty products gathered from around the country.

But on other hand, with this characteristic, buying and selling of slaves become prevalent here.

300 years before now.

During the time Caroline and co. ruled the world, she worked as a maid for the demon king Iburizu.

Caroline was even among the maids who held a superior ability and spent many leisurely days.

However still——.

The Maou was defeated by the hero which lead to a complete change where humanity began to prosper.

Caroline who was being driven away from her dwelling by humans, again and again suffered from humiliation.

Compared to the humans, there are more demons who have beautiful features.

For that reason, cases where female demons like Caroline, being bought by human nobles and receiving further humiliation becomes the norm. (Rumanshi: I think you understand what humiliation implies...)

Caroline has also caught the eye of 1 slave trader.
Furthermore, what's worst is that even within Saintbell, there is this notorious trader called Bakuraja Ackerman.

His wrongdoings have also reached the street which Caroline stayed.

History.

He was discovered to be a nothing but a brute who enjoys sexually tormenting slaves.

History.

His deeds have lead to a numerous number of slaves losing their lives.

Being lead to the residence, if one is tied by 《Master Servant Pact/Contract》, his or her life will not be guaranteed.

In the midst of moving towards Saintbell, the rock turtle which was being used to move the carriage began to rampage can be said to be a blessing in disguise.

Normally, it is known that it's temperament is gentle, and there is no demons like rock turtle which will mindlessly attack the humans but there are times it will step onto sharp rocks leading to trainers unable to control it.

During the time the rock turtle rampage, Caroline took her chances and successfully escape from the turtle carriage into the woods.

"This is bad! As it is, We will be killed by Bakuraja-Sama. That girl! She has not completely recovered from the medication no?!"

The guys are in a panic.

It is known that vampires have better physical ability than others.

By any chance, to prepare for any situation, the guys had given Caroline 『Weakening medication』to lower her status.

Originally, if you are weakened, you will not be able to walk at all.

In addition.

The difference between the guys and her is nowhere near close, for Caroline who had trained herself for the past 300 years to reach her current potential.

" Chi. If you guys hurt the valuable goods, I do not know what to say to Bakuraja-Sama... But compared to letting her run as it is, it's worst! Rascals ... Set the arrows!"

The guys had understood that if one simply chases, it's impossible to capture her. Therefore, they one by one shot their arrows towards her.

"....Kya"

One of the arrow shot by the guy was stuck onto Caroline's back.
If it's just that, it's impossible to say that it's a fatal wound but in the next moment, tragedy occurred.
After getting shot by an arrow, Caroline lost her balance and fall down the forest's slope.
It's unknown if she will continue to roll off the cliff——

(Please help.... Maou-sama..)

A single thought passed through her mind as she lost conscious. Naturally 300 years back was where the Maou had lost it's life——

It's unknown if her prayers got through or not, but——.

From now on, the meeting of Demon girl Caroline Button and Souta will continue the next day.

Chapter 12 – A new skill obtained

A new skill obtained.

In order to exchange the medicinal grass obtained in Gassur Forest , I returned back to the Adventurer Guild.

「NO~! Why, with me being a god, why must I carry luggage?!」

“Well, it’s like that. For, this is also a necessary job to suppress the demon king.”

Using the goblins to obtain medicinal grass has resulted in a harvest more than I had expected.

However still——.

As I had obtained a huge amount of medicinal grass. I am troubled by the situation where it’s impossible for me to carry it back to the guild

Although the goblins are able to help to carry them back to the guild, taking them along in a group will capture unwanted attention.

I do not wish for such a thing, therefore I enlisted Aphrodite for help to carry the luggage.

With a drop in status, Aphrodite is not very useful in battle.

At times like this, working like this seems to be like a divine punishment for her.

It seems like I had obtain the skill to contract with demons.

A game like skill which allows me to combine demons and create new ones?

The (status) Mind 1000 was obtained when I successfully contracted with the goddess Aphrodite. I have a hunch that using normal method, this amount is impossible to obtain.

Let's try out this new skill tonight nearby.

With that decided, I carried bag which was filled with huge amounts of Medicinal grass and move towards the Adventurers' Guild.

"This 36000 col is the remuneration for the quest "

".... Thank you very much"

"Nevertheless, this is awesome! Just setting half a day, you are able to obtain that many medicinal grass. If it's a novice adventurer, there are many who will get completely lost in the jungle. You know?!"

The receptionist Kuroe Chan *Kuri Kuri *is astonished with her eyes wide open.

"Hahaha. It's not a big deal, you know"

It's thanks to the goblins who gathered for me.

But getting praised by a beautiful girl is not bad.

Today's earning is 36000 col.

Surveying the prices at the street stalls, it seems like in this world, the value of 1 col seems to exceed the value of 1 yen a little.

In short, just this afternoon, I had made a killing of around 40000 yen.

The strategy of using huge number of goblins to collect medicinal grass seems to be a huge success.

With my purse filled with money, I walked with light steps to search for inn to sleep for the night.

Chapter 13 – Trying to combine Demons

Trying to combine demons.

In order to find an inn for the night, I walk around for an hour.

I finally succeed in finding an affordable inn.

As for the price, it's 4000 kol for a day and two meals. A soft bed including a shower room..... I don't doubt that it's certainly a reasonable price compared with the other inns.

Above all, the private room I am able to stay in is big.

As I wished to avoid sharing a room with other adventurers as much as possible, I am very much satisfied with this inn.

"Gobu! Gobu!"

Right now.

I am in the midst of giving the meal and water which I bought from the landlady to the wolves and goblins.

"Hey!. Souta. What the hell... This room is crumbling..... Besides, weren't there better inns?"

Aphrodite expresses her dissatisfaction while nibbling on rye bread like a hamster.

"There's no helping it. Because there isn't enough finances."

Nonetheless, I understand how Aphrodite feels.

The room which I rented, in modern-day Japan, would measure around 6 tatami mats. (tl: ~ 10m²)

When Aphrodite is summoned from the capsule ball, the room is jam-packed. Gyuu Gyuu

"Well, as I will be sleeping the capsule ball either way, it doesn't matter!"

Aphrodite who can leave and enter the ball at will is enviable.

Well, one way or another, it's convenient for me for Aphrodite to stay in the ball.

I stop fussing about it too much.....

When making her stay in the capsule ball, hotel charges for 1 person are saved.

Now then.

After successfully securing a bed, I decide to inspect the <Demon Combination> skill that was on my mind.

Should I evolve it?

After thinking for a bit, I made up my mind to evolve a goblin.

The adventure this time, my goblins were completely defeated by other demons.

1 goal which I wanted to clear at an earlier stage was the reinforcement of the demons that become my subordinates.

There is also the problem which the largest amount that can be enslaved is 56.

The next morning.

Checking out of the inn, I immediately decided to go onto the street.

“Heey. Souta. Where are you going? The way I understand it, isn’t the direction of the forest in the other way?”

“Ah. Today’s priority is to go to the store. “

I wander around in the town of Saint Bell, looking for my target store.

【Guild Approved General Goods Store Silver Shield】

Unexpectedly, I was able to find the store I was looking for immediately.

Edgar Martin.

Sex: Male

Age: 31

“Please come in. Welcome to the guild approved general goods store.”

We are greeted as we enter the store by a fashionable and plump middle aged man.

According to the information I got from Chloe-chan yesterday—.

The guild approved general goods store has miscellaneous useful items for adventurers, a so called ‘Jack of all trades’

This country enacts ‘Adventurer Protection Law’ giving this store grace, giving us various tax breaks which lets us offer reasonable prices for commodities.

“Customer-san. What items are you seeking today?”

“Etto. I’m looking for clothes at a reasonable price.”

“.....I see. As for that fellow, being prepared immediately sounds good.

Edgar-san who looked at our Earth-shattering appearance, had a look of understanding.

Being truthful..... Preparing clothes was my first priority and I handled a quest in order to get them.

“So-Souta! Is it good to buy clothes for me, I wonder?”

“Ah. It’s only natural? Our present clothes stand out too much .”

At anyrate, I am wearing a high school uniform.
Aphrodite wearing the same clothes from heaven will cause a disastrous scene.

I am tormented by the sense of shame when walking down the street like two people having a costume play on a commuters train.

“Y-yes! As a matter of fact I..... Buying myself clothes, this is the first time!”

“Is that so?”

“Yes. In heaven there wasn’t a store that sold clothes. The clothes we wore were always decided by the rules.”

“Certainly. If a god were to wear casual clothes, the atmosphere would be ruined in various ways.”

Aphrodite looked around the shop while her eyes are shining brightly.

As the goddess speaks, the tension is no different to that of a young woman.

I’d never expect her to be delighted coming here.

“Wait. For equipment, I recommend equipment within this area to customer-san.”

Adventurer Clothes | Class F

(For the fledgling adventurer who prefers to wear clothes. Texture is nice and they are easy to move in.)

Adventurer Clothes | Class F

(For the fledgling adventurer who prefers to wear shoes. No special abilities but the durability is high.)

After a waiting a while, Edgar-san recommended the two above-mentioned items.

The price of the Adventurer Clothes is 1500 kol. The price of the Adventurer shoes is 1000 kol.

Regarding the Guild approved General Goods Stores price, professionalism and courtesy, no complaints can be made.

“I like both. There seems to be different designs for men and women..... Is D good with this?”

I offered casually, but Aphrodite gives off discontent facial expression.

“I hate such plain clothes! This one is good for me!”

Dancing Demon Clothes Grade E

(Frequently used by women who admire decorative clothes)

In Aphrodites hands are pink clothes possessing a feminine design.
Looking at the label..... I am surprised with the 18,000 kol price!
It seems that with a grade difference of only 1, the price jump will be high.

“No, no! Wouldn’t it be illogical to come here to buy clothes that won’t attract attention if we buy those flashy clothes!?”

“That’s irrelevant! It’s a matter of pride! As a goddess of beauty, It’s impossible to compromise my appearance! ”

“.....”

She is as troublesome a fellow as ever.

“You idiot. You are originally beyond pretty, plain clothes are just right for you.”

“.....!?”

As soon as she heard my words, Aphrodite’s face was as red as a ripe tomato.
“P-pretty..... What are you saying so suddenly!? Perhaps Souta..... Do you look at me with such eyes?”

“.....Why are you getting so shy about it? Surely you have heard you were beautiful many times before.”

“I, I’m not shy! It’s just, Souta said such strange things suddenly and I was surprised”

Bashfully entangling her fingers Aphrodite speaks her mind.

“Besides..... Because of the gods lack of relations with other people, there was no praise from the opposite sex either.”

That was unexpected.

For a self proclaimed goddess of beauty, you’d think surely many men have praised her—.

When looking at this reaction, it seems that’s not the case.

“It, It can’t be helped. If Souta says so until there, I’ll compromise on the clothes!”

Somehow with a good mood, Aphrodite returns the <<Demon Dancer Clothes>> she is holding onto the shelf.

Above all, it’s good that Aphrodite seems to have understood my point.

Then.

At the Guild Approved General Goods Store, we buy a warm blanket and the bare necessities of life, then head to Gassur Forest.

Chapter 15 – The Search Begins!

Translator: TryTranslations

Chapter 15: The Search Begins!

We went down to the 《Gasuur Forest》 again.

My current short-term goal in Adelheid is to save up sufficient funds.

Without adequate equipment and enough battle capability, subjugating the devil king and returning to earth will be just a dream.

After reaching the forest, I checked the surroundings for presence of other people, before summoning the recently born Goblin Elites and Goblin Knights.

[Gobuu! Gobugobuu!]

The Goblin Elite seems to be the size of a globin who had grown twice the size.

Its height should be around 60 cm.

It also has a slightly more imposing look on it, when compared to the original one.

Goblin Knight's appearance is like the aged version of the Goblin Elite.

Unlike the slim figure of the Goblin Elite, the Goblin Knight has acquired quite a muscular build.

If one is to match Goblin Elite to a new employee who just graduate recently, then the Goblin Knight would be on the class of the department head.

[Alright. All of you! Please listen]

After summoning all the demons at hand, I raised my voice so that they can hear me.

[Today, I think we will gather 《Medicinal Grass》 just like yesterday. After gathering them, please put them by the roots of the tree.]

[Gobuu! Gobugobuu!]

Listening to my words, the Goblin army scattered deep into the woods, like baby spiders.

Well, well.

What will happen?

Yesterday's adventure resulted in an accident where some goblins were taken out by other demons, but it is different today.

Using the newly learnt skill , the goblins achieved a remarkable evolution.

Though the group count had dropped, each of their status has risen tremendously.

I wonder what kind of effect would that change have on today's harvest?

While anticipating the result, I decided to advance into the depths of the forest to replenish new demons.

Chapter 16 – Maiden of the Demon Clan

TL: Yoshiro

Hi, I thought I should just introduce myself. I just started translating not too long ago and this series was supposedly my first project but I didn't know Rumanshi already started it.

But he took me in to help him out so here I am. Hope you people enjoy our work and continue to support us on this series.

Yoroshiku Onegaishimasu.

Chapter 16: The Maiden of the Demon Clan

3 hours has passed since the start of the adventure.

Though I am still unable to find the 《Medicinal Grass》 on my own, the replenishment of the demons is progressing smoothly.

I have managed to capture an addition of 18 more goblins, successfully acquiring new combination ingredients.

Regarding the wolf that we encountered, I commanded the goblin knights to defeat it.

Unlike the goblin, the wolf can't be evolved using the <Demon Combination> skill.

Since my maximum capacity for enslavement is 55, it's about time I start considering about the limits.

"Haa... I am really tired. Hey.. , Souta. Isn't it about time we take a short break?"

"If you want to, then please return to the ball yourself."

Just when I let Aphrodite out from the ball because she said 'Since I wanted a change of pace, can I help out?'...

This good-for-nothing goddess is always spouting dissatisfaction when she opens her mouth.

"Gobbu! Gobugobbu!"

Though I already noticed it when the search begins, 2 goblin knights that was sent out for the search was equipping itself with a wooden pole before you know it.

It seems like goblin knights have a trait of using weapons in battle.

A weapon...

Looks like it's about time I really think about it.

Since I can't really let them use that wooden pole indefinitely, I really want to get them equipped with new weapons.

"Souta!? There is someone on top of that tree!"

At the strike of the end of second hour since the start of the search.

Aphrodite suddenly exclaimed in a serious tone.

Seems to have fallen off the cliff.

Looking at where she is pointing to, it is certain that there is a figure on top of a large tree.

When I observed more carefully, that figure seems to be a girl wearing clothing of a maid.

".....um!" (TL: Sounds of using strength)

Without a moment's delay, I climbed up the tree, and moved to the edge of the branch the girl's body was caught onto.

While carrying her body, I carefully return to the ground, ensuring the branch doesn't break.

Caroline Burton

Gender : Female

Race: Vampire

Age: 318

Status: Weakness

Weakness

(An abnormal status that lower the condition of the target.)

Using the Appraisal skill, Caroline Burton seems to be the name of this silvered hair girl.

Though her outward appearance can only be seen in her early teens, her age is an astonishing 318 years old.

Losing my spirit, I close my eyes, but Caroline's features are without doubt real.

"This girl, she's from the demon clan right?"

Just when I was looking at Caroline's appearance

Aphrodite slowly murmured.

"What is the demon clan?"

“The demon clan is the term for the tribe that allied themselves to the reigning demon king in Adelheid 300 years ago. It seems like due to the demon clan holding powerful abilities, it was a time when our existences as divinities were being threatened.”

“... I see. Then, why is someone from the demon clan in this forest?”

“I am not sure. After the demon king perished, they pretty much lost their power, and lived in the shadows of humans, or so I heard.”

“.....”

“Even so, she is bleeding badly, to the point it’s a miracle that she is still alive. If left alone, she will most likely die in an hour time, i guess?”

Exactly as Aphrodite said.

Caroline’s bleeding is truly gruesome.

Though the abrasion from falling down the cliff was bad, I believe she was attacked by someone.

There is an arrow stuck to her back.

“This is..... Hey, can you do something about it with your abilities?”

“It’s impossible. If it’s the previous me, I would be able to heal using recovery magic on a injury of this level... but as you can see, due to the status debuff, magic of all kinds can’t be used.”

“Even if by chance, she was caught upon the top of the tree, which I think is her fortune in the midst of all her misfortunes.”

In the worst scenario where...

If her body had landed on the ground, without a doubt, she would have been food for carnivorous demons like the wolves.

“However, this is strange fate. There is one way where she can be saved.”

“.... really!?”

“Yep. Didn’t I told you previously that when inside the ball, you acquired a really strong healing effect? Normally, it’s impossible for a monster tamer to enslave a vampire but ... you can save her using the skill 《Absolute Control》that you possess.”

“Indeed. There is such a way!”

I no longer hesitate after listening to Aphrodite’s idea.

It's not that I totally do not feel guilty to enslave a girl that I know nothing of.

However.

Even more than that, I can't just let this girl die .

The capsule ball that I threw suddenly radiated a dazzling light, absorbing Caroline's body into it.

I believe the contract has been completed safely.

My status screen is now updated with Caroline's name.

Chapter 17 – An unexpected use

Bonus Chapter!

An unexpected use

Since the contract with the beautiful vampire girl, Carolina Burton, 3 hours have passed.

The conclusion of the medicine grass collection ended up with the amount collected exceeding yesterday's amount.

I didn't calculate it definitely, but isn't the quantity gathered no less than 100?

But, a new challenge has arisen.

With the progression of time the pace of collection has clearly declined

At first I thought that the demons were simply tired, but this time it doesn't explain the pace of decline.

This leads to a single conclusion.

It seems like I have exhausted the supply of《Medicine Grass》that grows within the forest.

“It is useless to work any more. For now, I'll return home and look for a new method to raise money tomorrow.”

By the way, the wolves are standing by as they are demons that are not suitable for the collection of medicine grass.

Compared to the goblins, their intelligence is low is their low point.

It seems the wolves have no distinction ability and would bring commonplace weeds.

“Fufufu! It seems my turn has come!”

Well.

How the hell am I meant to carry this medicine grass back to the street? And, as I was thinking so Aphrodite raised her voice.

“Good grief..... Souta can't do anything without me. If Souta just bows his head..... Shall I help with carrying luggage today as well?”

“.....”

U, Uzee.

Certainly with the time picking the medicine, with only 1 person carrying it, it will get dark.
Can Aphrodite, two goblin knights and I just barely carry it?
I feel the amount.

To take the two demons to the street is something I don't want to do, in order to avoid the public's gaze.

"Hey hey! What's wrong? 'Please. Aphrodite-sama! Pre pre pre pretty – Aphrodite-sama! Transcendent beautiful person Aphrodite-sama!', if you sob while putting your head to the ground, I'll think about it specially?"

To bow my head is rather cheap, but it feels like Aphrodite will somehow get more annoying.

Can nothing be done?

When various plans went through my head, an idea sprung to mind.

".....No. Wait?

Absolute Control (Grade: Details unknown)
(Protection given to those with the qualification to rule the universe)

So what I remembered was the divine protection 《Absolute Control》.

According to the explanation that's written, it's possible to control any target.
Then I wonder if I can store not only the demon, but the items inside the ball?

Actually, Aphrodite has her pillow and blanket in the ball so it's possible.

The image is important.
I pile the medicine grass in a huge mound on the ground, then push it against the capsule ball.

What will happen?
The capsule ball emits a dazzling light, sucking the items like a high-performance girlfriend (Vacuum cleaner).

It seems that medicine grass item is not obstructed by the limit somehow.
As a result more than 100 medicine grass ended up in the capsule ball.

"FGYAAAA!?! WHY! FOR WHAT REASON!?"

By no means did I think to take away one of the few jobs as a baggage carrier.

The condescending attitude from a short while ago completely reversed itself.
Aphrodite seems to be considerably upset.

"..... Hey, hey Souta. By the way, all my words from a short time ago were a joke, okay?"

“I understand. It’s impossible for a sweet girl like D to take advantage of a person’s weakness.”

Towards my jokingly sarcastic remarks, Aphrodite becomes teary eyed.

“R, right. It’s good if you understand. I feel impressed that Souta, without noticing, seems to have matured too.”

“Haha. If my growth stays at this rhythm, D’s work may disappear more and more.”

To me speaking even more sarcasm, Aphrodite lowers herself and sits on my body.

“I, I’m shorry. I got carried away.....”

“..... I see. I understand.”

“That’s why, Souta. Please don’t throw me aside..... Because I’ll help seriously next time.....”

“Since I understand..... Don’t be so clingy!”

Aphrodite’s shock might be bigger than I thought.

After that.

It took a long time for Aphrodite to stop crying.

Chapter 18 – The Girl that sells Apples

The Girl that Sells Apples

“This will be your reward of 66000 col for the quest.”

“Thank you very much.”

On this day, there was an uproar in the adventure guild.

That was expected.

In just one day, the 《Medicinal Grass》that I have brought in easily exceeded a number of 100

Just out of curiosity, how are you able to gather some much? Could it be that Souta happen to know of a secret spot in the forest?

“Fufufu. This is because of the talent I have as a adventurer. This is natural if you leave the job to me. ”

“Hey hey. What the hell? That rookie...?”

“Oh I recalled. If I am not mistaken, he was the guy who brought in an outrageously beautiful girl when he came to register as an adventurer.”

“Seriously!? That topic where the guy who was wearing weird clothing!”

Topics in regards to me is starting to circulate among the other adventurers.

Hmm.

As expected, that might have been a little too conspicuous.

The plan of using 《Medicinal Grass》 as a form of earnings will have to be restrained for the time being.

Well, no matter, since I am planning to get a different quest tomorrow, I guess there shouldn’t be much problem.

While thinking of that, I left the adventurer guild.

“Onii-san. Apple! Would you like to have an apple?”

(TL: Onii-chan = Brother, or any stranger who is older than you, but not an Uncle yet.)

To return to the inn, I am walking on the streets of Saint Bell.
A girl called out to me.

That girl was opening a shop with a simple street booth, placing the apples on top of a slightly dirtied sheet.

I wonder if she is about 7 years old?

In modern Japan, she would, without doubt, be at the age of entering elementary school.

So in this world, young girls like her also have to work.

She doesn't seem to be well nourished, as it was a heart-aching scene.

"Souta. I am hungry. Since we are here, how about bringing some apples back?"

I wonder if Aphrodite wanted to do something after seeing the little girl's appearance.

"That's true. Eetto. Can I have 10 of them?"

"Th..Thank you very much! 10 of them, that will be 1500 col. "

I handed over 1 silver coin and 5 iron coin, in exchange for the apples.

If there are any remaining apples after that, let's give them to the goblins as feed.

By the way, the currency value of this world are as follows:

Bronze coin 10 col

Iron coin 100 col

Silver coin 1 000 col

Gold coin 10 000 col

Though there is something above those called white gold, it seems that it is never circulated in the market at all.

Aphrodite and I were both chewing the apple while walking on the streets of Saint Bell.

Anyway, in regards to the taste, they were extremely normal apples.

But.

After being summoned to the alternate world, I think it's been a while since I have eaten anything sweet.

I found the apple delicious to the point of being moved after not eating one for a long time.

"Hey. You there. .Stop your feet."

Bakuraja Ackerman

Race: Human

Age: 37

While walking in a really good mood, a sweaty overweight middle-aged man stands right in front of me.

Taking along what seems to be his bad-looking subordinates, the overweight man glared at us.

“Hey! Do you recognize the girl in this picture!?”

What he took out from his bosom was a picture of a sexy voluptuous girl.

I immediately realized that the girl in the picture was the vampire girl, Caroline, who I enslaved recently in the forest.

“No. Sorry. Though I have no idea, may I know what did she to?”

If it's Caroline, she is sleeping in the ball though?

I won't speak of it even if my mouth was being teared apart.
Since the circumstances don't seem to be normal, I think it's best that I do not disclose information regarding Caroline.

“You! You are being too haughty! Do you know who is this person!? He is the commander of Saint Bell's 4th biggest slave firm, Bakuraja Ackerman-sama.”

“... I... I see.”

well, who is that?

In the first place, the commander of the 4th biggest firm..... That sounds like an awfully questionable position if you say me.

“~Funn~. Know that your life is at its end if you made any more rude comments! That girl in the picture is an item that we have purchased. In spite of that, it has escaped.”

“....”

I see.

That means Caroline didn't want to be a slave and was escaping from that fate.

Then, in the midst of escaping, she fell from the cliff and got to her current situation.

“I understand. If I receive any information, I will contact you.”

After bowing my head, the whole mass of guys went off looking for the next witness by proceeding through the booths.

“What's that about? What an unpleasant feeling.”

“Yep. It feels like it's going to be troublesome, so let's try not to have anything to do with it.”

I thought about this after the situation, but I think I might have raised a flag when I made that remark.

“Hey you! Lining apples at this place... Do you have the commerce permit that we issued!?”

“You crap! Get over here! I am going to spank you real good at my house.”

The overweight man smiled vulgarly while seemingly ensnaring the girl that sells apple. His right hand went grabbing the girl's butt tightly.

“Uhhh. Don't you think that's enough? It's childish against a kid, you know.”

Ahhh. I am an idiot!

I have already decided not to be involved into it since I know it's going to be troublesome.....
By the time I realized, my body had already moved.

Chapter 19 – A new companion

A new companion

“W-what? You...? You’re the adventurer from before?”

The man became angry when I disturbed his sexual harassment of the girl.

The overweight, middle-aged man’s face warped into an angry expression.

“Adventurer’s appearance? You have something to say to me, yes?”

“O, onii-san.....”

I look at the girl. She is looking towards me with a frightened look.

I have a complaint!

It’s only permitted to lick a little girl in the 2-D world!

Because there are people like you, Japanese manga is regulated.

It creates a chain of grief and sorrow.

“Listen to what I’m saying! Are you ignoring me-?!”

The middle-aged man pulls the sword from his waist.

Without hesitation, he tries to cut me.

In an instant, I summon a Goblin Knight.

The Goblin Knight uses his whole body to protect me from the middle-aged man.

“What. You.....You were a monster tamer?”

Yeh, right.

Apparently the occupation of monster tamer is notable in Adelheide.

However, the middle-aged man can move quite spritely in spite of his size.

The Goblin Knight is my best fighter currently, but he’s going to take serious damage from the middle-aged man.

“I’m not afraid of you! Seize the adventurer! You’ll be sorry a monster tamer tried to go against me!”

“Ha.....!” x3

Having heard the instructions, the middle-aged man’s subordinates pull out their swords and rush towards me.

“Goblins! Protect me!”

I gradually summon the goblins; 2 goblin, 3 goblin, 4 goblin...
15 goblin knights appear within the street.

“What?” x3

Even I would be frightened when there were so many enemies.
The men slam on the brakes, stopping their approach.

I don’t miss this chance.
I give orders for my Goblin Knights to attack.

I have the enemy outnumbered.
The Goblin Knights attack and the men grovel in response to the surprise attack.

“You’ve gone too far! Follow my instructions and withdraw the monsters! Otherwise, I’ll cut this little girl’s neck.”

“O, onii-san.....

I was careless.
The man’s subordinates distracted me and my judgement was impaired.

The fat, middle-aged man captured the apple-selling girl and has a proud air.

“I understand. I’ll listen. But I have one condition”

“Huh...? A condition...?”

The man’s face becomes questioning.

“In exchange take this guy for me”

“Hmm. What’s this...?”

Because I threw it in a large arc, I was able to catch him off guard very well.

The fat man catches the capsule ball that I threw in the air.

“I caught it!”

However, it was the trap I had set!

“W-What!? This light!?”

The fat man raised a cry just after.
The capsule ball which I threw emits a dazzling light and the fat man’s body gets sucked in.

Result.

Now, what to do with the middle-aged man in my small capsule ball.

“Hey! What is this place!? Let me out! Get me out of here quickly! Don’t blame me for whatever happens!”

The fat man knocked on the wall from the inside of the ball. His face becoming deep-red from the exertion.

Phew...

I survived a difficult situation this time somehow.

A fat, middle-aged man! Get!

Chapter 20 – The vampire maid wakes up

The vampire maid wakes up

“Are you alright? Are you hurt?”

“....yes. Thank you onii-san.”

The girl who was selling apples gave a polite bow as I asked.

I understood clearly this time.

My《Absolute Control》 skill, is a dangerous thing depending on it's usage as it can cause the common sense of the world to collapse.

Fortunately. The people who were in the street when I summoned my goblin army seem to have run away.

It seems that the number of witnesses has been kept to a minimum.

“Souta. How do you say....I'm sorry I said something like that...”

Aphrodite looks down bashfully as she talks.

“Today. You were a little.... you were cool.”

“Ha, ha. Why, thanks.”

It was hard to believe that such words came out of the mouth of Aphrodite.

There is no higher honour then to receive words of praise from a goddess.

Okay.

A case has been completed and I should go back to the inn.

It would be unwise to remain in this place.

The hard work of my goblins meant I was able to make a lot more money than I expected from today's adventure.

Tonight I decide to choose an expensive inn that has an attached bathroom.

The inn last night cost 7000 kol and this inn cost almost twice as much.

But.

I can wash the sweat off after a long absence from a bathroom.

When the body is in this stinking state, it is worth splurging.

Well.

Probably because I was resting my body in a ball for half a day.

The vampire maid, Carolina, who I met in a forest completely healed the wounds.

“Ah. Are you awake?”

After a while lying on the bed in the inn, Carolina regains consciousness.

“.....Maou.....sa.....ma?” (Rue: Maou-sama, the devil king.)

When Carolina sees my figure, she utters strange words.

“Err. Have you mistaken me for somebody?”

When I ask, Carolina suddenly seems to remember me.

“...I, I’m sorry for this. My memory is confused. Where on earth am I?”

“It is the inn of Saint Bell here. You collapsed in a forest so I carried you to this town.”

“Is that so. Thank you for helping me this time. How should I give my thanks? My name is Carolina. Carolina Burton. My friends call me Caro. Ah...if you don’t mind could you tell me your name?”

“Oh. My name is Kazehaya Souta.”

“Souta-sama...is it? It’s vague but I remember that you helped me.”

It was you who saved me when I had fallen from a cliff and was caught in the tree? It’s strange. I was only slightly conscious but I remember your face clearly.”

“So. That’s good.”

It seems I have been saved the trouble of an explanation.

And then.

After pondering on something for a while, Carolina begins to talk slowly.

“Err...Therefore I may want to discuss it with Souta-sama; How may I repay Souta-sama’s kindness?”

“Return the favour?”

“Yes. When you say it that way, it sounds so brazen.... I was brought to Saint Bell as a slave. Even if I leave here, there is nothing for me to return to. I would like to stay by Souta’s side, to help Souta.”

“...I’m grateful but I do not have enough money to employ a maid.”

“Oh. Then it’s fine. Originally, I am not dissatisfied as long as I’m getting minimum food and clothing.

If what Carolina says is true, hers is not a happy story.

“I have a little confidence in battle. I think I could be useful to Mr. Souta if he took me on his adventure.”

Carolina’s words are probably truthful.
Her status as a woman was above average.

“I know. There is no reason to refuse Karo.”

“Really!? Thank you very much! Master!”

“M-Master.....!?”

“Yes. After all, this is suitable because Souta is my master from now on.is something strange?”

“It’s not strange! Not strange! By all means, call me master from now on!”

How unusual.
Somehow, I seem to have become Carolina’s master today.

I didn’t think the day that a girl would call me master without paying her money would ever come.

Chapter 21 – The forbidden meeting

The Forbidden meeting

The highlight up to here.

I somehow managed to become Carolina's master.

"Master. If you want me to do anything, please order me. If it's master's orders, I'll accept anything.

Carolina says so while bowing gracefully.

"A-anything is okay.....?"

"It's natural. After being rescued by master, I'll serve with all my body and power wholeheartedly."

Carolina says words of thanks with a carefree smile.

Because it was too cute, my heart throbs unexpectedly.

Or perhaps should I say, thinking about my situation right now, it is exceedingly amazing right now.

At a close inspection, Carolina seems to be quite slim overall and what emerges... The man's ideal of a body.

It's dangerous.

My heart is throbbing now that I've become conscious of it.

"Souta! I rented a bath earlier!"

When I looked in the direction the voice, Aphrodite was there wearing a bathrobe. Her appearance directly after a shower was incredibly sexy.

Out of a small gap in the bath towel Aphrodite's voluptuous breasts shake.

".....-!" Why is there a member of the gods family here!?"

Carolina who saw the figure of Aphrodite had her complexion pale visibly.

"Perhaps Karo, do you understand the true nature of this fellow?"

"Yeah. The gods and demons are inextricably linked. Because they are existences that are directly opposite each other. When they are close it can be sensed, although vague."

I see.

That reminds me, when Aphrodite saw Carolina, she did conclude that she was from the demon's family.

“Is that so. It can’t be helped if it’s exposed. This girl here, is called Aphrodite and has various circumstances so she has to adventure with me.”

Carolina who heard my words became even more shaken than before.

“A-APHRODITE!? AREN’T GODS THOSE WHO HAVE RISEN TO THE TOP RANK IN HEAVEN?! WHY IS ONE OF THE TWELVE GODS OF OLYMPUS ON THE GROUND!?”

“.....”

I didn’t know.

I think I heard her name a lot in games... but in this world, is Aphrodite also very famous?

“Etto. There are various reasons for this.”

Things have become more complex.

If I think about it carefully, I have contracted both someone from the Gods family and the demons family who are like water and oil.

I’ve decided to explain the details to Carolina.

Chapter 22 – Hero or Maou?

Hero or Maou

I have met an outrageous person.

In response to the various explanations Carolina was unable to hide her surprise.

Though there is also the meeting with the most supreme divines on land, what shock Carolina even more is the fact that the divines that accompany humans.

In response to the prediction of the Maou's revival, she was informed by her fellow demons about the summoning of heroes from an alternate world.

Although.

Even though Carolina has 300 years of experience, she has not heard of a divine protection that could control a God.

.....No, to be accurate, there was only one person in the past with a power similar to that.

Great Maou — Ibris.

The existence whom dominated Adelheid 300 years ago and was feared.

Ibris is an existence Adelheid that has the skill of "enslaving all monsters", and is surely being placed in the most absolute position.

I wonder why.

From a glance, Souta's form is sort of overlapping that of the Maou's...

Perhaps this is, the boy called Kazehaya Souta who was summoned to the different world as a hero, is the reincarnation of the Maou?

The doubt which budded in Carolina gradually grew into conviction.

There are two reasons for this.

First; A prediction of the revival of the Maou in the near future that came from the mouth of a famous prophet.

With Ibris' mighty powers, though his body might rot away there is no way his soul disappeared completely.

In such a case, it would be normal for the reincarnation to take hundreds of years.

The second thing; the perception of Carolina who served the demon king for a long time.

She served at Ibris' side closer than anyone else, she can understand simply because she loves him from the bottom of her heart.

There is no doubt.

The boy called Kazehaya Souta is the reincarnation of the demon king.

The person himself doesn't seem to be aware of it, but if the prophecy is reliable, before long he will awaken to the power of the Maou and dominate Adelheid.

Then my mission should be to help him with my utmost effort.

(But, it was a strange coincidence, wasn't it? To be able to meet you by chance in this way again.....)

Ibris who is stronger than everyone else is the subject of longing by Carolina.

(Fufu. To think that I..... I can't get this worked up.)

Carolina trembles in joy, being able to serve the demon king once more.

Chapter 23 – Let's collect mushrooms in the marsh

Let's collect mushrooms in the marsh

The next day.

I came to the adventurer's guild in order to find a quest to replace the medicinal grass collection which was my main one.

By the way, last night I had Carolina wait in a ball with Aphrodite.

Given her circumstances, it would be good to let things calm down before having her live mainly inside the ball when you think about it.

"Oi oi. Look. A new quest is added."

"It seems to have rained heavily at a marsh in Zumaria yesterday. Monsters has begun to spring up."

I have heard middle-aged adventurers talk about such a thing as they stand before the guild board.

●Subjugation of Light Mash

Supression of Amoeba Slug

☆Search-type Quest

Collect medicinal table mushrooms

Required R: G

Success condition: Collect 10 medicinal table mushrooms

Reward: 6000 col

Repetition: Possible

The men are talking about the above 3 quests.

The adventurer rank required is G.

Seems like that said suddenly-added quest has somewhat equal payment to the existing ones inside the forest.

I cleared all the medicinal grass for that request earlier too, so there's no real reason for not accepting this new request right?

Then 2 hours later.

I arrived at the damp ground of Zumaria to handle the quest I had just accepted.

According to the pamphlet I took from the guild, the demon appearing in this area seems to be light mash and two kinds of amoeba slugs.

When I've confirmed that there was no human presence, I called Carolina out from the ball.

"A-Amazing! I heard from you before, but I'm really able to freely enter and exit the ball!"

Suddenly called, Carolina eyes grew big with surprise.

"... the divine protection of <> which rules all families. It feels like too much power for a mere human to have."

"Hm? Did you say something?"

"N-no! It's nothing!"

When I asked it, I had the feeling that I was being deceived as Carolina waved her hand exaggeratedly.

"Souta, look, look! A Monster Mushroom is coming from over there!"

At Aphrodite's fingertips, there was a Light Mash jumping up and down.

"Caro! I want to see your fighting capability. Is it alright to leave this place? Do not kill that monster but neutralize it, save it."

"I understand. A monster of that level wouldn't be a problem, even with my bare hands."

Declaring so, Carolina peered in the direction of the Light Mash.

The Light Mash was a mushroom shaped monster, with a full length of approximately 50 centimeters.

Since it appears to have become a gigantic mushroom, it didn't grow any feet.

The monster moved by hopping, like a pogo stick, and the atmosphere was comical.

"Nokou! "

When the Light Mash raises a strange voice, I begin to splurt out spores from the point of its head.

Nuooo!

What is it? That attack!?

If that attack is poisonous, it's bad.

Was it a misjudgement to let Carolina fight this as her first opponent?

But.

Carolina was calm in contrast to my worries.

Suddenly, a strong wind arose from Carolina's feet.

"This is....magic.....!?"

My prediction is right, this wind is attributed to [Wind Attribute Magic (intermediate)] display by the status screen of Carolina.

The numbness powder which the Light Mash shot is being drowned out by the wind.

Immediately after.

Carolina jumped with superhuman strength, like a rabbit, and lands behind the Light Marsh in an instant.

Then.

Without wasting a moment, the Light Mash was sent flying by a compact kick.

"Umm. Was that okay?"

"That's just enough! With this, even if I leave all the fighting to you, there would seem to be no problem at all"

Due to the Carolina's effort, the Light Mash was at death's door breathing weakly. When it's like this, I can surely put it into the capsule ball.

Chapter 24 – The Forbidden Combination

mtl: Miss Nomu

The forbidden Combination

The latest swamp land search is for the collection of <<Medicinal Mushrooms>.

According to the pamphlet which I received from the guild, <<Medicinal Mushrooms> seem to often inhabit particularly humid locations in the swamp land of Zumaria.

The same method as when I harvested <<Medicinal Grass>> before in a forest will probably be good.

So I decided to summon the goblin army, one after another.

“Amazing! To be able to summon so many monsters at the same time...!”

Carolina sent a respectful look towards me, who managed to summon the goblin army without pause.

“Well. I guess this amazing?”

It can't be helped that it doesn't feel that amazing. I haven't had anything or anyone to compare it to.

“Of course! It is said that the number of monsters which a demon trainer can contract depends on your level! It is said to be possible to employ 3 monsters simultaneously only at the top rank.”

“...is that so”

If it takes one person to summon 3 monsters at once, then I wonder how many people I count as.....

“Isn't it natural? After all, Souta contracted a God! I'm the reason you don't have to work so much.”

“.....”

So...that's why you have a smug face.

By the way.

While we were chattering away, I decided to enter the work as the summoning of the goblin knights was over.

I intend to have Aphrodite and Carolina help with the collection of this <<Medicinal Mushroom>> too.

I decided to add five goblin knights and one wolf to each of them as they entered into work.

“Go from under my command and obey the orders of Aphrodite and Carolina. Protect those two like you would me, and if anything happens protect them with your lives”

“Gobu!” x2

“Gauuu!” x 2

I want to leave two people mainly as a primary conduit to bridge me and the demons.

As for the search, if I let a monster make an expedition, a single order will be insufficient.

If it is possible to get Aphrodite and Carolina to give orders at the right time, wouldn't it make the search more efficient?

For that reason, we divide into 3.

Then.

After Approximately 10 minutes had passed since I started work.

The first Goblin Knight who started searching seems to have succeeded in the collection of the first << medicinal food mushroom>>.

I came to this place to collect <<Medicinal Mushrooms>> but this time there's something more important I'd like to see.

Assasin's Dagger of the Slaughter, Fire Elemental Magic (Beginner), Water Elemental Magic (Beginner)

From a capsule ball, I summon the middle-aged man who I had previously employed.

“...Where is this!?”

Bakuraga appeared to be upset when he suddenly appeared in the outside world.

It would be terrible if Aphrodite and Carolina were to experience sexual harassment in the ball. That's why I ordered Bakuraja to sleep in the ball until I permitted otherwise.

It will appear to Bakuraja that he was trapped in the ball only several minutes.

Alright.

How to dispose of this fellow?

There is no way for me to cancel the contract for now but leaving it this way is inconvenient.

There is a limit to the number of monsters I can employ.

Assassin's Dagger of Slaughter Class: D passive.
(Slashing ability, Mid-high power increase)

Acquisition criteria
Slaughter more than 10 people for pleasure.

Although I had noticed before, when examining the status I realised this man was an atrocious human.

This is because of it being necessary to slaughter more than 10 people for pleasure to acquire the skill <<Assassin's Dagger of the Slaughter>>.

Assuming I get the means to cancel the contract later, when he's set free from the ball there might be further victims.

"Since it's like this, I'd better prepare myself as well. "

The middle-aged man, who was summoned among the wolves, looks like a samurai prepared to commit seppuku as he closes his eyes slowly.

"Go.... kill! You should murder him! I don't intend to survive miserably under a boy's control!"

"....."

Are you an orc surrounded by princess knights? (お前はオークに囲まれた姫騎士かよ。)

If anything, the middle-aged man resembles an orc...

It goes without saying, but the fat old guy yelling [Kill him! Kill him!] isn't moe(cute) at all.

"Don't worry. You're a fish I didn't intend to catch."

I, a mere high school student was summoned into a different world.
I will be overcome with emotion if I murder him, a lot of guilt for taking a human life.

“Hmph. In that case....you’re letting me go? Sorry but I won’t take mercy even from a kid like you!”

“No. It’s different. I won’t let you escape but I won’t kill you. There is only way for this to become a WIN-WIN relationship!

Declaring as such, I open a status screen and slowly scroll through the listed skills.

It has succeeded in gaining intelligence by assimilating the blood of the human family.

Characteristics are quick movement and nail attacks.

Werewolf is probably called wolfman in Japanese.

Moreover, this werewolf's status seems to be established excessively high.

If this numerical value is right, this will certainly be the strongest monster which I contract.

There is no reason not to combine!

"....click"

"W-what!? This light is!?"

The moment after I press the "yes" button on the status screen.

The body of the ossan and the wolf are wrapped in pale light.

"You, what have you done to me!? What have you doooooonnnnnne.....!?"

I'd notice a crisis happening to my own body.

Bakuraja changes his expression and shouts but it is already too late!

The body of Ossan will soon be drawn into the body of the wolf.

Just after that.

The wolf's body is wrapped in light and expands.

The newly born monster, a werewolf, emerges from the midst of the light.

"Gau! Gau!"

The werewolf was a monster with a human body and the head of a wolf, almost 2 meters tall.

The body was huge but the silvery, fluffy hair covering it meant it had a strange lovely atmosphere.

It had changed completely from the ossan's hateful face before the transformation.

It has the look that seems to be popular with high school girls walking around Shibuya or Harajuku.

“Alright! A werewolf. Shake!”

“Sit down!”

Gau!”

It did it!

Apparently it seems to have met my order without any problem somehow.

I succeeded in the acquisition of the monster with the best attack potential presently in an unexpected way.

Chapter 25 – Let's try using the skill

Let's try using the skill

It seems like splitting the work into 3 teams was right from the results.

The effectiveness of the hunt became a lot more better than usual.

The place that I indicate will always have 'Medicinal Mushroom' to gather every interval.

"Master. This is the proof for the subjugation, 'Grip of the Light Mash'."

"Souta. We have also brought materials over!"

"Oh. Gather as much as you can."

The fact that we even manage to harvest the rarely seen subjugation proof shows the effect of the new operation.

The goblin army is supposedly the monsters with high intelligence but to command all of them while having multiple orders would result in a huge decrease in precision for each of them.

In other words, during the period of the order of "Search of 'Medicinal Mushroom'", it's impossible to have them go on a feat of gathering materials from defeating monsters.

Because of Aphrodite and Carolina going over to update their order, we are getting the current results.

Numb powder Grade E

(Long range. Range attack. A skill that gives a specific target the numb status.)

"Since the gathering of materials is going smoothly, I decided to do some skill verification works this time."

I have to try these things when I have the time.

Now! It might be too late when the effects are unknown at times.

While i was thinking that, I slowly summon Light Marsh.

"Nokoooo!"

Light Marsh is making a weird cry as usual.

For skills like this, effect can't be used if there are no targets in the vicinity.

Though it's a pitiful to do an experiment like this, I can't replace my stomach with my spine.

I summon Wolf opposite of Light Marsh.

"Woof! Woof!"

After completing the preparation, Verification Start!

(Light Marsh.... Numbing Powder!)

Without delay, I order Light Marsh to use the skill.

Immediately after that.

As if lowering its head in a bow, Light Marsh sprayed a grain-like substance from the top of its mushroom umbrella.

It seems to be of a range of 2m.

It feels rather uneasy to use it as a ranged attack but the degree of the effect is immense..

Wolf Lv 1 Status (Numb)

Affected by the numbing powder skill, not only is the wolf unable to stand, it is rolling on the floor while showing signs of cramps from the body, piku piku.

Hou Hou.

The numbing powder skill seems to be a lot stronger than expected.

For me who throw capsule ball at monsters to enslave them, the compatibility is specially good.

Let's make the future basic tactics to be throwing a capsule ball at the target monster after it's been debuffed.

After being satisfied from the skill verification work, I bend myself forward to rejoin the gathering of materials.

Chapter 26 – Amoeba Slug

Amoeba Slug

“Alright. We’d better return today before sunset.”

“You truly are my master! You’ve gathered so much material in just a single day.....

“Ah. To tell you the truth, I’m also surprised by this result.”

In the first place, it might have been a mistake to have let the goblins scatter and work so far away.

From this result, I think that the true value of the goblins is when they are gathered into a team.

“However, how will I take this much material home? It’s not possible to take it all at once even with 3 people to do the carrying....”

“Oh, it’s okay. No need to worry.”

I throw a capsule ball and the big pile of <> under the tree becomes stored in the ball.

“A-amazing! How can you use a capsule ball in such a way !?”

“No, it’s nothing much”

Because Carolina is impressed by every fresh reaction, it doesn’t raise my spirits.

On the other hand, if it came from our goddess.....

“FUGYAAAAAA!?! SOMEONE HELP MEEEEEEEEEEEE-!”

Speak of the devil.....

There is no doubt that this is Aphrodite’s voice.

There was a giant slug monster there when I rushed towards the voice.

“That is...the amoeba slug.....!?”

It's length is easily near 2 meters.

The silhouette looks just like the slugs on Earth but it has a semi-transparent, crystalline body.

Level 7.

This is the highest level monster I've encountered so far.

“Souta! Hy-Hyelp..... Hyelp myee.....”

With her eyes becoming teary, Aphrodite asks for help.

Her body has been trapped by various semi-transparent tentacles extending from the amoeba slug.

“This monster! Slimy and gross....!”

The monsters who I had sent as an escort seemed to be running around in utter confusion without knowing what to do with the monster attacking from the water.”

“Wait! I need help now!”

I hurl a capsule ball immediately towards the huge Filthy Slime.

But, unexpected things happen the next moment.

The amoebas slug has repelled the capsule ball with a tentacle extending from inside it's body.

At this moment, a weakness of the invincible capsule ball was revealed.

I didn't notice until now because until now I had not met a demon who was able <> the ball.

It hits it and is sent straight back,so I should probably do something else.

What should I do?

I think using the light marsh's 'Numbness Powder' at this range will be difficult. There is a possibility that it will miss.

“Master. Please leave it to me.”

Carolina calls out to me while I am puzzled.

“...is it okay? I think there is an enemy in the pond.”

“Not a problem. It is fully within my legs reach. By all means, help Aphrodite.”

“Oh...it's very encouraging!”

Carolina's legs are certainly strong, she will be able to attack the amoeba slug.

If there is even a single blow, it should be an opportunity for me to get the amoeba slug.

It will be the best opportunity to land a capsule ball!

The next moment, after I was determined in my mind—the incident occurred.

“HI YAAH!”

Suddenly, Aphrodite raises a pink scream. (Ru: 'Pink' = 'ecchi')

What I thought it looked like was that the tentacles of the amoeba slug had begun to extend inside Aphrodite's skirt.

“Hey. Suddenly a strange voice rang out”

“H-he.. this monster is touching a strange place....”

I hesitate, Aphrodite is wriggling and writhing.

I wonder if I should interfere with this predation ?

The amoebas slug handles a tentacle skillfully and peels off Aphrodite's clothes.

“I can't permit you to do such a terrible thing to my friend....!”

Good job!

What a fantastic situation! Nice decision. (To take off the clothes)

“.....Master?”

I'm bad.

Although I said cool lines with my mouth, I started at Aphrodite's figure.

Carolina was openly wearing a look of ill humour.

“....tch.”

Is it my imagination?

But I can clearly hear the tongue clicking sound from the direction of Carolina.

Then.

Carolina keeps shortening the distance from the amoeba slug gradually.

“I'm sorry. I have also been caught....!”

She became the victim of a tentacle without resistance.

Hey.

Chapter 27 – Let's prepare the Monsters Equipment

Let's prepare the monster's equipment

This expedition was very profitable by itself.

The number of material brought back well surpasses 100.

Light marsh x 8

Amoebas slug x 2

I was unable to employ many monsters in Zumaria marsh as, unlike the goblins, they did not have the group behaviour.

However.

It was good that I was able to capture a second amoebas slug on the way home.

It might be a rare monster if on my one day expedition I only met two.

[The quest reward is 76000 Col]

"...thanks. Thank you very much."

"You were amazing as usual! Since I began work more than 1 year ago, you are the first adventurer to have gathered so many raw materials!"

The receptionist, Chloe-chan, looked at me with big eyes, surprised.

"Ha ha ha. It's not a big deal."

While I suppress my heart from soaring, I provide a foppish smile.

"By the way, do you want to have dinner together tonight?"

"Ah. You don't have to do that."

"....."

As I felt like it, I tried picking up a woman for the first time in this life..... And was splendidly rejected completely.

This fellow..is she not interested in me!?

I had completely misunderstood because they praised me like something as "amazing".

Even if an unpopular guy goes into a different world, will he still be unpopular?

.....it's a tough world.

Due to cash received from selling the large amount of raw materials, I have a warm feeling in my chest.

I left the adventurer's guild to visit the general store I was at previously.

"Come. Welcome to the officially recognised guild general store."

I enter the store and am greeted by an unfashionable, plump, middle-aged man.

"So, Caro, what kind of weapon do you want?"

"Well, it is different from a weapon but if I could get some less constricting clothes. It is hard to move in these maid clothes."

"I see. Well, That seems alright."

The purpose of this shopping is equipment replenishment.

So far, care about any budget has been abandoned —.

As my ability is a monster tamer, I want the equipment on Aphrodite and Carolina to be as good as possible.

"Also..I would be thankful if you would buy a change of underwear...I have only the pair I put on."

"Mhm. Shall I choose it carefully?"

Carolina was in the forest a long time and she hasn't had the circumstances to change since meeting me.

Then, she has probably kept the same underwear on for around 3 days?

Why am I doing such a useless calculation?

"Ah. If that's the case, I want to buy underwear!"

"Didn't you just buy some yesterday?"

This fellow obstinately didn't tell me what kind of underwear she wore.

"Stupid Souta! To ask that is to have no delicacy! No matter how much underwear a girl has, it isn't enough!"

"....is that so?"

I don't understand it well but I should probably leave it alone.

By the way, Adelheid's underwear is almost the same design as modern day Japan.

Somehow.

After the manager of the general store heard such a story, and guessed—.

It seems that rubber-like materials in Adeleheid that are easy to manufacture exist, but compared to the people of Earth, underwear culture has developed for a long time or something.

I've got no problem with the fact that other world girls are the best, but when it comes to underwear, I'm more used to Earth's design and so I like it more.

To me who likes beautiful girls' panties three times more than food, it seems like the underwear situation in Adeleheid is somewhat convenient to me.

Alright.

While the women choose their underwear, shall I choose the weapon to make the Goblin Knights have?

Presently, the Goblin Knight has a club that has been carved from a tree.

Isn't it possible to increase their battle ability drastically by changing weapon?

It would be worth trying sufficiently.

"I'm sorry. I'm looking for a weapon even beginners can handle, is there not something?"

"Hmm. Weapons. They are handled in our shop but I cannot recommend..."

"Why is that?"

"There is a few little items but our shop is not a specialty store. It is not possible for us to perform maintenance on the weapon, so it is better for the beginner to go to a specialty store. There are many specialty shops that will give periodical maintenance for free."

"....I see."

Apparently we can not arrange everything in the general store.

"Shall I tell you the location of the weapon shop located in Saint Bell?"

"Thank you for your help."

Like that I heard from the manager Edgar-san about the location of specialty shops.

It is protective gear, not decorative, I have to purchase.
I decide to go in the general store and choose Carolina's equipment for a while.

Ranger suit Class E
(Clothes for ease of movement)

Leather boots Class F
(Strong boots. Small bonus to blow offensive attacks.)

Like that, I chose a suit of clothes for the purpose of expedition and a pair of boots to fulfill the request.

“Souta-sama. Umm...is it okay to buy me such expensive clothes?”

Carolina who had entered the fitting room and changed clothes uttered a cry of bewilderment....

The price of the clothes called the Ranger Suit is 9000 Cols. In Japanese money, it was around 10,000 yen but the clothing was comparatively expensive to the rest in the shop.

“I don’t mind. You have worked hard and this is not that great an expense.”

“Thank you! I’ll use it carefully!”

And well, while I said that quite condescendingly, really this time’s matter was out of my own self-interest.

The Ranger Suit which I chose for Carolina was an attractive design, a mini-skirt + garter belt + knee-sock combo.

While it is my sense of style, I think this is the perfect article for Carolina, who gives off a ‘cool’ air.

For Carolina who uses kicks as her main fighting style, as I thought having her wear a miniskirt is best.

“It is a little short Souta. On earth, what kind of thing is this? Are Caro’s clothes more expensive than mine?”

“Well, that is the case. I’ll give D another opportunity to buy equipment due to the different value.”

“Muu~. Absolutely! It’s a promise!”

There is still a slightly displeased air but—
Aphrodite seems to have understood somehow.

Compared to the early days, Aphrodite has become a lot more obedient.

Chapter 28 – The blacksmith girl

Translator: Yoshiro

The Blacksmith Girl

After buying the armor, the next thing would be to acquire weapons.

I decided to visit the closest store that Edgar-san told me.

“Wait. Souta. Let’s not go to that store.”

“.... I also think that it would be better to search for another store.”

That store, closest to the General store, gives a dismissal reaction to females from its outlook.

Composite Arms Store

The words on the tattered signboard were pretty much worn out to the level where you can barely read it.

“It can’t be helped. Let’s find another shop, shall we? To begin with, we can’t enter the store anyway since the shutter is down.

At the timing of when we gave up and was about to return.

Sheryl Oterrod(Need help with this)

“Um... It’s been a while since I see the dazzling sunz.”

(TL: Trying to act some sound effect to make her sound slightly different)

With the ‘gara gara’ sounds, the store’s shutter started opening.

What appear from inside the store was a girl of short build with a nearly 150 cm height.

If you are talking about a gnome in an RPG, it would be the Earth attribute Sprite, right?

I wonder if the gnome’s race feature is also sharp-pointed ears like the elves?

Though covered in soot and oil, if you concentrate your gaze, you can actually see rather cute features.

A different type of beauty, compared to Aphrodite and Caroline.

“Ah. Hi Hi. Customerz?

As she noticed me, she floated a friendly smile.

“Could it be... you are the one that manage this shop?”

“That’s rightz. What kind of weapons are you searching for today? Since I have completed the work that have been keeping me busy, I can provide some service!”

As the girl named Sheryl’s sights laid on Aphrodite and Caroline at my back, her eyes widened.

“Hey! Adventurer-san! Are those girls Adventurer-san’s companion!?”

“Ah. Well, that does turns out to be the case.”

“Wah.. I am shocked. I have never seen such lovely people before. They are really beautiful girls, aren’t they!?”

Sheryl was taking a semi-over reaction after seeing the appearance of Aphrodite and Caroline.

“Yosh. I have decided. Souta. We shall buy weapons from this shop today!”

“Eh? But didn’t you say you wanted to find some other shop just now?”

“I have already forgotten something so long in the past! To be astonished of my beauty at the beginning of our first meeting..... Isn’t she a considerably promising child? Surely, I am sure that her skill as a blacksmith is undoubtable.”

“.....”

Well, I don’t think those two have any relations with each other though.

Seriously... She changed her mind so easily just from some compliments. Likely due to the good mood from being complimented, Aphrodite took my arm, and began entering the insides of the store.

Chapter 29 – Let's try searching for a suitable weapon

Translators: Rumanshi, Light

Rumanshi: I had a bit of fun with the shopkeepers accent, lol.

Let's try searching for a suitable weapon

The store that Sheryl managed, while it's exterior was worn out, the interior was unexpectedly orderly.

Sword, Spear, Axe, Bow, and to top it all off, nunchacks–

As one would expect of a specialist shop when it comes to variety of weapons, the general stores just can't be compared with this.

Now then.

What on earth should I choose?

"Having so many choices is unexpectedly making it harder to decide..."

"Etto... Izzz it pozzibl that adventurer-san isn't uzed to manny weaponz? Forz a beginner-zan I recommend zis area here."

She took mind to me who was gazing around at the articles restlessly.

Sheryl pointed to an area of the store with relatively reasonable weapons.

"E—tto. To tell you the truth, I've never used a weapon at all....."

"? Howz exactly iz thiz?

Rather than explaining by mouth it'd probably be better to show it.

I summoned a goblin knight from the capsule ball.

"I want you tell me a weapon suitable for him."

Sheryl looks at the goblin knight with a difficult face and scratches her cheek.

"U~mu. I see, adventurer-san waz a user of monsters, isn't he? However, thiz is troubling. Onezelf hazn't the experience in choosing weaponz for a monster."

"..... Is that the case? Hasn't any monster trainer visited besides me?"

"Noo'z. The perzonz who come to buy weaponz for monsters are rarely seenz. In the first place, the weaponz that a demon can use are severely limited."

"Is that so?"

Indeed, in the past when I tried, only the goblin knights could be equipped with weapons.

I have come across goblins being used as a labour force before at Saint bell, but the evolution 'Goblin Elite's cannot be found anywhere at all.

It may be that it is too difficult to enslave a strong demons like Goblin Knights that can handle weapons unless it's through the demon combination skill.

"For now, I want to try out all categories from start to end. So can you arrange the cheap weapons over here?"

"Roger! Since that's the case I'll be bringing various things okay!"

Five minutes later.

Bronze Sword / Grade: F / Cost: 6000 Kol
(Copper Sword preferred by the novice adventurer)

Bronze Lance / Grade: F / Cost: 6000 Kol
(Copper Spear preferred by the novice adventurer)

Bronze mace / Grade: F / Cost: 5000 Kol
(Copper Battle-cane preferred by the novice adventurer.)
(Nymph: Cane is a kind of staff/stick)

Round Shield / Grade: F / Cost: 3000 Kol
(Wooden shield, it's light and easy to use.)

Sheryl chose suitable weapons from the shop and displayed them before me.
It seems that the bronze Grade F weapons are the ones which can be bought cheaply.

I let the goblin knight try and equip the various equipments as a trial.

右手にブロンズソード、左手にラウンドシールドを手にしたゴブリンナイトは、『ナイト』という名前に相応しい風貌になっていた。The goblin knight who had a bronze sword in his right hand and a round shield in his left has looks appropriate for the name 『Knight』.

Its presence is completely different with the equipment! (Light: He's intimidating desu)
If all the members of the goblin knights are fully equipped, there is no mistaking that a strongest knight corps will be formed.

"By the way I do weapon maintenance free of charge! If the sword's blade ever turns dull, please bring it back to my shop. I'll service it for you!"

I feel that the prices are reasonable anyways, and it doesn't matter much to me even if I choose this shop.

The me who made that decision/judgment, bought a single various weapons from the bronze series and three round shields.

Let's start with looking for good equipment together with Goblin Knight.

I am looking forward to tomorrow's expedition.

Chapter 30 – Contact

Contact

I, having returned to the hotel, decide to open up my status screen.

Kazuya – Souta

Occupation: Monster Trainer

Level: 557

Vitality: 252

Attack Power: 95

Magic Power: 200

Mana: 2898

Divine Protection

Absolute control

Skill

Capsule Ball, Appraisal Eyes, Demon combination, contact

Employed/Enslaved

Aphrodite

Carolina – Burton

Werewolf

Goblin Knight x15

Wolf x 4

Light Marsh x8

Amoeba Slug x2

Although my level hadn't risen as usual, a new skill had been added.

Contact – Class D – Passive

(A skill which enables mental communication with enslaved/employed demons. The effective scope is within a radius 50 metres of the user.)

Acquisition condition

More than 100 mana.

Employ/Enslave a monster who uses the skill.

Speaking of it, isn't that thing more generally known as telepathy?

It is certain from the written explanation that it is considerably convenient skill.

If I am not mistaken from the written explanation stated there, it's considerably a convenient skill.

I decide to try using the skill to contact Aphrodite and Carolina as a trial.

(Hey, hey. Right now I'm in the middle of testing my new skill. I seem to have learned a telepathy skill, if you hear me, please respond in your mind.)

The moment after I use my skill 'contact'.

I comprehend that the two bodies relaxing on the bed react with a Pikun.

(Eh? No way? I am hearing Souta's words in my head?)

(Impressive! It's possible now to talk with master for 24 hours!)

Although they were surprised, Aphrodite and Carolina who received my messaged seemed impressed with my new skill.

Then.

I decide to continue inspecting the contact skill for a while.

How should I say... It's as I expected.

At first impression the skill is convenient.

As an important note, in the end if it's not via me then the Contact skill can't be used isn't.

In brief, I don't seem to be able to use it in combinations such as other monsters and Aphrodite or Carolina.

However.

Even considering that, there's no doubt that it's a useful skill.

Especially as the skill contact is usable for beings inside the capsule ball.

From the point of view of the females in the ball, they have benefit of having the possibility of demanding things anytime they like

After the inspection of the contact skill was over, it is now time for the combination of monsters.

Due to me recklessly going on gathering missions, the things i have to do has piled up into a mountain pile.

I use 《Demon Combination》 and look for a pair whom I can evolve.

Then 10 minutes later.

It seems there is only 1 possible demon evolution as follows.

Mad Marsh / Class: F

Encyclopedia # 732

Race: Plant tribe

Class: D

Level 1

Vitality 35
Attack Power: 10
Magic power: 25
Mana: 25

Skill
Numbing powder, disorder powder

Evolution condition
Light Marsh x Amoeba Slug

Low ranked monster of the plant tribe.
It's strong point is it's spore which makes the other party sexually excited.
The spore may be traded at a high price as it a material in an aphrodisiac.

The mad marsh seems to be a monster I can create by adding an Ameoba Slug to a Light Marsh.

A new skill 'Disorder powder' was added to the entry.

Disorder powder / Class: D
(Long Distance – Ranged attack. Skill which puts the other party into a sexually excited state.)

Uh-huh. I see.
Sexually excited state.... Is it something like that?!

I think I need a quick inspection of this skill.

When the Mad Marsh was made using the Demon Combination skill, I decided to summon it into the room.

"Noko~! Nokono~!"

Mad marsh has a colour that is similar to Light marsh.
Other than the change in colour from yellow to pink, the difference in outer appearance cannot be seen.
If I have to state the difference, then is the mushroom umbrella slightly bigger ?

"Hey! Souta! You made a new monster again"

Aphrodite who discovered the Mad Marsh which was summoned is approaching with great interest.

"Still it's convenient~. The demon combination skill. You can make a strong monster even if you only have this skill! In other words, the day when we can subdue the demon king and I can return to the heavens isn't too far way!"

Aphrodite who came out from the bath with a bathrobe on, defenceless *Tsun Tsun*prod the mad marsh with her finger

To inspect the skills effect – NOW IS THE PERFECT TIMING!

(Mad Marsh! Use Disorder Power!)

Just now, I noticed a serious fact.

Right after Aphrodite use the skill Contact, I gave a command to the mad marsh in less than a minute.

In short, to say what significance it has....

The combo of using Contact and disorder powder, the perfect crime of sexual harassment has been established.

The mad marsh who received my order spew out pink spores from it's orange hat.

“Cho!? What is this?! This powder?!”

“Nuo-! This pore.....It came towards me.....!”

I was careless.

どうやらマッドマッシュの持っていた乱れ粉のスキルは、痺れ粉よりも攻撃範囲が格段に広いものであったらしい。The Mad Marshes skill ‘Disorder Powder’ seems to have a remarkably larger attack range than numbness powder somehow or another.

The inside of the room has become filled with the pink spore—.

As a result, I myself inhale some of the spore through my nose and mouth.

“Huh?A little.....My body is a little hot.....”

The first one to become abnormal was Aphrodite.

Aphrodite who received the dispersing spores at point blank range, gave *powapowa * an enchanted expression

“.....Souta. My body's.... Something is strange.”

Aphrodite throws off the bathrobe she put on and reveals her underwear and figure.

Th-this is the effect of the Sexual excitement state!? (Ru: Yahooo!)

As for myself, my body is funny.

My body felt hot*Pokapoka* as though I had just drank a strong nourishment drink and Aphrodite's body gradually looked like it became more and more erotic.

No.

Thinking calmly, Aphrodite's erotic body is not the origin.....

“Please. Souta..... I can only hold on for a short while.....

Aphrodite pushes my body down on the bed with her breath roughening.

Her face is so near that a sigh would touch.

Before long, Aphrodite slowly brings her face near my lips—.

“.....What are you doing? Aphrodite-san”

As I thought I heard a voice filled with killing intent, a huge amount of cold water poured onto Aphrodite’s head.

“COLD!?”

“Did this make you wake up?”

“Ha~. The heck am I doing.....?”

Aphrodite suddenly came to her sense due to the cold water and seeing me asks.

“J-just a minute, Souta! Don’t look at me like this!”

Aphrodite who realized that she was straddling me in her underwear, jumped off from the bed and use her hands to cover her body.

“This is wrong! How do say... I was possessed by an evil spirit.... Anyway, because I’m something like Souta’s possession, I do not like these sort of paltry things as well. Do not think in a weird way!”

After bursting out those words, Aphrodite panicky dashes back into the bathroom.

As for Caroline who was spectating this scene all the while, she gave me a cold gaze.

(That female cat..... Making passes at my demon king.....! Kill. Kill Kill Kill Kill Kill.)

“.....Etto. That. Carolina-san?”

“Yes. What is it, Master?”

(Not good. How thoughtless of me.... I must control my feelings.....)

Carolina looks back at me with an exceptional bi-shojou (beautiful girl) smile.

How extraordinary.

It appears somehow or another that through this contact skill, it seems like I had heard a part of Carolina’s thoughts that was leaked out.

But even so, why did Carolina called me Demon king?

“Etto. Well, now we know that cold water is effective against the skill of the mad marsh.”

“Yes. I know the countermeasure well as Mad Marshes would occasionally appear in the village I lived in previously.”

“I-is that so. I’ll use it as a reference.

“By the way Souta-sama. When inspecting a skill, couldn’t you use me? Because I’m different from Aphrodite, I won’t run away even if I’m ashamed.

“.....”

In spite of using the contact skill–.

Carolina seems to have come out after finding out I gave the order for the Mad Marsh to use its skill.

“.....Ah. I’ll think about it.”

I wonder why.

If it was just a little while ago, it would be a line I would be jumping for joy at, but now I can’t even rejoice obediently.

I who has become aware of Carolina’s malicious true character after a while.

I spent the night being unable to fall asleep.

Chapter 31 – A new request?!

A new request!?

The next day.

When I went to the adventurers guild, a mysterious crowd had formed around the bulletin board.

“Wait a minute! An outrageous request has been posted.”

“I heard about it. A dragon has emerged within the forest.”

“.....You. Will you try accepting it?”

“Is that a joke? Even if I could acquire a large fortune, I will still decline. My life comes first.”

Dragon?

What the heck are they talking about?

I push my way through the crowd in order to check the contents of the bulletin board.

Then, what was there—.

☆ Urgent Quest

Subjugation of the dragon bird. (Yian Kut Ku)

Required Rank: G

Success condition: Subdue 1 cockatrice which has appeared in Gassur Forest.

Reward: 3,000,000 KoI

Repeat: Not possible.

The men are probably talking about the new request that was added ‘Subjugation of the Dragon Bird’.

“Excuse me. It is about the the newly added dragon bird subjugation quest..... Could you tell me a little more about it.”

“Yes. The subjugation target this time is the demon called Cockatrice. It is an exceedingly dangerous meat eating dragon It’s forte is breathing out red hot flames from it’s mouth.

“.....I see. Understood.”

Speaking of the Cockatrice, it gave me an image of a monster whose breath from it’s mouth will turn humans into stone.

From what they are saying, it seems that the Cockatrice of this world is limited to only breathing fire out it’s mouth and can’t turn men to stone.

Nethertheless, this doesn’t change the fact it’s a strong monster.

Now then.

What should I do now?

One way or another the risk is high, but the reward of 3,000,000 is certainly exceptional.

It may be worth taking the risk and challenging it.

“Souta! Have you decided whether decide to receive this dragon subjugation quest or not?”

“Un.. Though it’s like that, I intend to put it on hold for the time being..”

“.....Ara? Why? The reward is 3,000,000, you know!? It’s a chance to make a killing!”

“Usually in a situation like this, it’s a based on the law of equivalent exchange.. Would the reward be 3,00,000 kol if the cockatrice dragon subjugation request was only a little dangerous?”

Aphrodite adopts a serious tone as she tries to persuade me with reproachful eyes.

“A great statement coming from a person who threw the capsule ball at the Goddess me... Souta has changed in an unexpected way to become conservatively sound..

“Leave it!”

I am the type to raise my level plenty before advancing onto the next map in an RPG!

In this different world where you can die for real, taking an overly careful stance is perfect..

“I think Master’s judgement is wise. Speaking of the Cockatrice; if it’s just a single village, it is monster notoriously known to burn it down easily. I guess that sort of battle capability is comparable even to us demon tribes.

“Hora. Even Carol has said so. Let’s proceed conservatively.

“Well, if that’s the case then I don’t particularly mind. But in that manner, the day that Souta defeats the Maou will be dragged further away.”

Aphrodite who received my steadfast declaration to the bitter end, gave out a small sigh.

Chapter 32 – Let's settle the trouble in the other world

Painful! Just what am I doing?

“Behave yourself! This chibi woman!” (Ru: ;-; Wut)

Today, in order to earn my daily income, as I walked towards Zumaria's wetland, for some reasons, I heard this rude conversation in the middle of the streets.

General Weapons Store 【Crimson Blades】

When I looked towards the direction of the voice, it came from a shop that I recognised.

Sheryl, the girl who is running the weapon store in Saintbell Street is quarreling with a Mohican dude with bad looks.

“Ora! Come out here quickly! Come to my firm and let's talk carefully over it.”

“....Uguu. I am against violence!”

The Mohican dude forcibly grasped Cheryl's hair and drag her away from the shop.
I am able to see the terrified look in her eyes.

In spite of the young girl begging for help, the pedestrian in the streets acted oblivious to the scene.

That cold hard truth has shown it's reality about this world's public order.

“D and Carol please standby in the ball? It seems that something has become really troublesome”

“I understand~”

“ Acknowledged”

Once the girls returned back into the ball, I walked towards the Mohican dude.

“ I am sorry. Is there something wrong?”

“HUUHHH? Who the hell are you?

“So-Souta-san!?”

Why in the blazes does she know my name?

I have some doubts about it but thinking about it carefully, during the time I entered Sheryl's shop to buy goods, I remembered that I made a membership card.

“ I am sorry but this isn't your problem. Outsiders should just stay back.”

“Well well. Don't say it like that. Isn't it okay to just explain to me what had happened?”

Even if the matter got escalated, it will just make the matter worse.

I as much as possible try not worsen the other party's mood by trying to polite and finding a way out of this.

“There is nothing much to be guilty/shady about it? It's just a job of collecting on debts, that's all. Incidentally, this is the IOU"

" I see. But isn't it difficult to prepare such a large sum of money?

" Ahh. Therefore I had gave you an advice to dispose of this ragtag shop to prepare the money quickly"

" Th-This shop is the shop that my Master had left behind for me! I cannot just easily surrender this shop to other!"

Also from the fact that she took over the shop at an age of 13, I thought she should have some kind of circumstances/reason but —

On Sheryl's side, something out of ordinary had occurred.

"..... And so. If you cannot prepare the money, it can't be helped. It has been decided that this girl will work as a slave to pay back the money."

"It should be paid back in monthly installments! Why has it become stricter so the point that you must collect it now!"

"Shut up! Various matters have happened as well. I seriously do not want to do it as well. The high classed slave who was planned to be sold to the high class noble to receive a huge amount money has escaped and my group's quota has suddenly jumped... Really, although it's such a stupid timing where has Baguraja-sama gone to?"

The Mohican dude unpleasantly gave a grumble.

I who heard the dude's words generally understood the reason for the trouble this time.

It appears somehow or another that the reward the guys' shop should have received after selling Carolina has vanished into thin air. It seems like this loss ended being shifted onto Sheryl.

No matter how I think about it, it seems like it's my responsibility.

Isn't that so?

Going back to the root of the problem, If I did not capture Carolina into the capsule ball, this trouble will not happened in the first place.

"Ano... Although there's the debt..... Is it impossible for me to shoulder it and pay?"

"So-Souta-san!?"

At my abrupt proposal, Sheryl opened her eyes wide in surprise.

".....Ha. Do not make me laugh. What can be expected from an adventurer with such poor and smelly equipment ?"

Certainly with normal request, raising 3 000 000 coils within a short period of time is impossible.

However, there is only 1 method of doing it.

Unlucky or not, I had only just known a way to obtain that huge amount of money.

“Please wait for 3 days. I will definitely prepare 3000000 col for you.”

“Haha! Don’t talk big. What can we get by waiting? What do you have to make us able to trust you?”

“Well Well. Don’t say that. It seems like you are being deceived.

I took out a gold coin from my pocket and placed it into the mohicans fist.

“This is the advance payment, If I break the promise and run away, you can just have the gold coin.”

When the dude received the bribe, his face immediately slackened and understood.

“...Ha!. This is interesting. If you say it like that, I will try waiting for a while. However, no matter how much I wait, nothing can be changed.”

“.....”

The mohican dude who received the gold coin left Sheryl’s store in a good mood.

However.

For today’s expedition, it seems that a change in destination is necessary.

I’ll aim at Gassur forest– To kill the dragon in order to get rich quick!

Chapter 33 – Godly eyes

i

Godly eyes

Then.

After walking for an hour, we arrived at Gassur forest.

Sheryl’s complexion turned blue when I spoke about the method to raise 3,000,000 cols and advocated a dissenting opinion.

“When speaking of the Cockatrice, it’s a monster famous amongst uz blacksmithz! Because this dragon possesses strong scales which are the materials used in high quality protective gear that the kingdom’s knights wear. However! The Cockatrice is originally...a monster which even 10 skilled adventurerz can’t fight against. ”

“.....you should have waited in town if you thought so.”

“That’s not what I’m saying! This, is a problem of myself and my masterz. I could not show my face in front of my master if another person got involved and injured!”

“.....Hey. I thought it a while ago, but why is Sheryl managing a store by herself? You said master, but, where is he now?”

If he just suddenly disappeared and pushed the store’s debt to Sheryl, then this is not a too cruel story.

“This... Being frank, myself does not know either. Master was a remarkable blacksmith while also being a remarkable adventurer. Two years ago..... He went to subjugate demonic beings and has never returned.”

“So that’s what happened.....”

As further investigation seems like it’d be like taking a snake out from a thicket, I stop. She has her own circumstances.

“I understand that Sheryl is worried, but it’s alright! I look like this but in fact, I’m really strong! I will not lose to a dragon!”

“Etto.....How do I say this.....Will it really be alright? Saying this might be rude.....but I don’t really see it that way.” (Nymph: She’s talking about MC’s strength)

Guha-!

The numbers in my status seem pretty high looking at it like this, but as expected I don’t seem to be too strong.

I am aware of it myself, so the next time a girl points it out I won't feel hurt.

"It's reasonable for Sheryl-chan to say! When judging by appearance, Souta does not seem like the reliable type at all! However, you should feel relieved. Because the goddess of love and beauty..... Aphrodite is on Souta's side!"

Aphrodite sticks out her chest and makes a hmph sound.

"Aphrodite is..... One of the twelve gods of Olympus!? Nono, by no means could you mean that. One self may be a countryman, but this one would not fall for such an obvious lie!"

I thought about it at the time with Carolina, but Aphrodite's popularity in this world is truly an amazing thing.

"Fu~n. If you can't believe it, I'll prove it. Let me see... E~ I see. Your three sizes from the top are 86 58 83. Is Sheryl-chan the type to be enormous when she takes it off? It's a pretty nice body for your height."

"Wh-. Whahaha!? Where did you get this information!?"

"Fufufu. If I use the skill that only the divine can use [Godly eyes] then I can see through anything.

The panties are white, I see. As a female, if I am to give you an advice, wearing a more erotic panties would be better, you know?"

"STOP ! I believe! I believe you! Don't speak about my own information in front of Souta-zan anymore!"

Sheryl began to use all her effort in an attempt to seal Aphrodite's mouth with teary eyes.

"Tsu~ka, you... Wasn't it the case that you were under a 『curse』 when you came to the ground?"

"Fufufu. I certainly said that. However, did I say this? The capsule ball has a healing power which can heal the 『curse』. To tell you the truth, the Godly eyes skill returned a while ago~"

Gununu!

In addition to the three sizes, the《Godly Eyes》skill can even see the colour of the panties.

Such a thing is quite the enviable ability.

"The God's eyes skill has the feeling of being a strengthened version of Souta's 《Judgement eyes》. If you want to make use of my skill then say 『Aphrodite-sama. Please lend me your assistance』 while licking my shoes. Like that, I may think about it?"

".....Is that so? Well, there's a chance."

Kuso-!

Being truthful, I'd like to kneel down in front of Aphrodite right now.

And I'd like for her to tell me the colour of the panties of the beautiful girls walking around the town to no end.

However.

If something like that is requested, the mood of the group of surrounding women being ruined can be seen in the future.

"..... Master. By the way, my panties are black?"

Due to the God's Eyes skill being too enviable, she almost went mad with jealousy—.

The motivated Carolina later on sneakily told the color of the panties.

Her affection managed to make me stay in line somehow.

Chapter 34 – The blood of the wolf

The blood of the wolf

“By the way, Souta. Aren’t we splitting up for today’s expedition?”

“Aa. I’m not sure what kind of timing is required to encounter a cockatrice.”

The expedition this time carries a large amount of risk compared to the previous ones. Cockatrice, the demon that became our main objective is a formidable enemy that has a set reward of 3 mil Coll in just a single subjugation.

It is certainly more efficient to split up and search for it but as this is first time Sheryl will be participating thus this will be the last resort.

I summon three Goblins to serve the role as bodyguards.

“Gobuu! Gobuuu!” x3

My strongest fighting force at present is my D Rank Werewolf. This guy serves as my 「last resort!」 so I had thought of saving him for urgent situation like that.

I decided to equip 3 goblin knights with the equipment that I had just purchased.

Goblin Knight Lv 1 (Under employment)

Right Hand: Bronze Sword

Left Hand: Round Shield

Goblin Knight LV1 (Under employment)

Right Hand: Bronze Lance

Goblin Knight LV 1 (Under employment)

Right hand: Bronze Mace

The goblin knights had a more reliable atmosphere now that I equipped them with a weapon and a shield.

“Oo~. Seeing demons holding the weaponz which onezself has made givez an odd feeling!”

Sheryl, with an excited face, eagerly observed the goblin knights appearance.

Well then.

Since we went to a different area,

let's go ahead test the goblin knights fighting ability, while also searching for the cockatrice.

With that judgement I advanced through the animal trail where trees were growing thickly.

After walking for a short time, a monster encounter occurred.

"Gau~! Gau~!"

The enemy numbers seven.

Though I am accustomed to fighting wolves, this is the first time there are so many.

Although normally I'd go with the 'throw the capsule ball and capture it' pattern without hesitation, but I've already decided to use the goblin knights to try to defeat them for this time.

(Go! Goblin knights!)

When I use the 'contact' skill to give them orders, the three goblin knights, with their individual weapons in hand, charge in.

It seems to have been the correct decision to have them carry weapons.

The goblin knights swing the weapons in their hands and continue kicking the wolves one after the other.

"Okay. That's enough. Now you can just stay back."

"Gobuu!" x3

It didn't take much time for the wolves' heads to be smashed and turned into lumps of flesh.

If I were to say one thing I'm curious of, it would be about the fact that, depending on the weapon I had them use, the amount of time before they can annihilate the wolves varies greatly.

In comparison to the bronze sword and bronze lance which took a long time to defeat the wolves, the goblin knight with the bronze mace could render a wolf incapacitated in just one or two hits.

I can't imagine that there's that much of a difference in the performance of each of the weapons.

.....Which would mean, it's got something to do with compatibility?

"Gau...Gau....."

".....Eh? So there was a survivor."

I'm guessing that one of the less-compatible weapons couldn't finish it off.
One of the wolf that is already bleeding from the forehead, groaned.

“Master, if it is alright.....could you give one of the wolf that is still alive there to me?”

“I don’t mind it but what will you be using him for?”

“We vampires have a disposition where we need to take in an animal’s blood periodically, or we won’t be able to continue living. Out of all the animals, the fresh (lit. still-living) blood of wolf-species are especially high in nutritional value to us and a staple food.”

“I see. Then you can use the wolf here as you like.”

“Thank you very much, master.”

“Err, will you not be drinking it?”

“.....No. I mean, it is embarrassing to be seen anyone when I am draining the blood....I’d appreciate it if you could turn to the back for a while.”

“I-Is that so.”

Carolina seemed to be fidgeting as she blushed.

Even though she doesn’t mind it when she was seen getting attacked by the tentacles, she doesn’t want to be watched when she’s eating?.....

I don’t really understand Carolina’s standard of embarrassment.

Anyway there’s no helping it if Carolina has said it herself that she doesn’t want to be seen. Turning my back on the still-embarrassed Carolina, it happened then.

“Master! Above!”

Carolina suddenly let out an alarmed, surprised cry.

When I look up as told, a dragon reaching three metres long was right in the midst of descending from the sky, aiming at the ground.

Chapter 35 – The predation of the dragon bird.

The predation of the dragon bird.

The highlight up to here—.

When I defeated some wolves in the forest, the cockatrice suddenly appeared.

Cockatrice Rank B LV24/30

Vitality: 328

Attack Power: 222

Mana: 153

Skills

Fire Breath

According to the judgement eye skill, the enemy monster's rank is B!

When I confirmed the status, all the values were abnormally high.

The monsters I've encountered up to now seem only like small fry when comparing to the cockatrice.

"Guggyaaaaaaaaaaa!"

The cockatrice opened its jaw widely and gave a loud roar.

Then, in the next moment.

It spat out a red hot breath from its mouth.

".....shit."

I sensed danger, and immediately returned Carolina and Aphrodite to the ball and evade the attack of the opponent.

"Fugiyaaaa!?! What are you doing!?"

"Kurae-! A single blow will ensure your death!"

If I use the ball, no matter how the status of the opponent is, it is irrelevant.

I hurl a ball at the cockatrice aiming to turn things around with a single shot.

But yet.

The Cockatrice used its large wing in order to repel the capsule ball which I through.

(Wait a minute! Souta! Don't overdo it!)

(Master. I think what you've done here is wise.)

The two people use to contact skill and advise me from within the ball.
No.

However.

Turning my back on this monster would be the opposite of escaping, rather it's an action that would be throwing my life away.

The cockatrice and I continued our staring match.

I can start to attack again because the ball I threw has already returned to my hand, but if I miss then a fatal gap might appear.

And then a little time passes—.

The cockatrice averted its eyes first.

The cockatrice suddenly dove to the ground, and flew away with the living wolf in its mouth.

Meanwhile, in only 2 seconds it was finished quickly. (Ru: Ugh.)

“.....I, I was saved.”

It seems that somehow, the cockatrices aim from the beginning was the wolf which I had defeated.

But, this is troubling.

I cannot save Sheryl without defeating that monster, but unfortunately, the difference in battle potential is just too great.

Is there no way to shoot an arrow back at that guy.....?

I stared at the figure of the dragon bird which disappeared into the clouds while preparing a method of subjugation in my head.

Chapter 36 – Task assignment

Task assignment

“.....This is bad. The food which was going to be given to Carolina has been stolen.”

“No. Don’t mind it. Putting that aside, master, isn’t there an injury somewhere?” (Y: “do you happen to be injured?”)

“Ah. I didn’t get injured somehow.”

If I’m forced to speak about it, at the beginning when avoiding the flame I got scratched, but a wound to this extent should heal even if I leave it alone.

“No. From master’s arm, I can smell the scent of flowing (lit: new) blood. Perhaps you did more than just grazed your left arm around here? If it’s alright, may I treat the wound?”

“..... I give up. Carolina can see through anything.”

When I rolled up the sleeve of my shirt to show the wound, Carolina tore up a handkerchief in replacement of a bandage and applied first aid treatment.

“It isn’t a big deal. For generations, vampires have been sensitive to the smell of blood.”

I, who heard the words of Carolina, had an idea flash in my head.

“Hey. If Carolina is sensitive to the smell of blood, is it not possible for her to trace the scent of the wolf which was stolen by the cockatrice just a little while ago?”

“.....That’s so, isn’t it? I remember the smell completely, so I don’t think it’s impossible. I think I will be able to smell fresh blood from a distance of even 200 meters away.”

My biggest concern when taking this quest was how we would track down the cockatrice.

If I can get a clue on information of the target’s location, I believe we can be closer towards the cockatrice subjugation, without doubt.

“Thank you. It was the right decision to befriend Karo.”

At this point in time, I had succeeded in creating a rough strategy for defeating the cockatrice.

However.

In order for the this times strategy to work, another person is needed at any cost.

“A~a. It would have been nice if only some goddess would have been as useful as Caro.”
I let out a sigh while saying words in order to provoke Aphrodite.

“Haa!? Wait a minute, Souta! Those words right now are inexcusable!”

Likely have been irritated from the tone of making fun of her.
Aphrodite rebutted while rocking both her ripe and drooping breasts.

“Just give me some work to do! I’ll prove it, that even I am helpful to Souta!”

“Okay. Though there is a job I want you to do..... Such dangerous work..... By no means can it be entrusted to a girl.”

“Fufun. Could you stop belittling me? Even if I lost all my powers by coming down to the surface, I am a Goddess, you know? I can do anything if it’s for Souta!”

“Alright, you’ll really do anything? Can I take that as a promise?”

“.....Huh?”

By the way.
I got Aphrodite’s consent and I was able to secure one of the necessary cards.

After the cockatrice is located, the preparations to defeat it will have been made.

“Hey, Sheryl. There is something I want to ask you to make in a bit, is it okay to ask you?”

Ah, yez. If there iz anything myzelf can do.”

As I work out a plan to defeat the cockatrice, I swear to take revenge on that hateful bird-dragon.

Chapter 37 – 早贄

First sacrifice.

Then.

After wandering around the forest for about two hours.

With the help of Carolina's special ability of smelling blood, we finally succeeded in locating the place where the cockatrice was.

The cockatrice seemed to have made a bed in a particularly large tree in Gassur Forest and is in the middle of resting right now.

"Still..... The smell is terrible."

Various bodies of creatures, starting from a wolf, were skewered on the branch of the large tree where the cockatrice is resting.

Exposing them to the sunlight, I wonder if it's planning to make dried meat?

It was quite the picture of hell.

Now that I think of it, there seems to be a bird called Shrike that has a similar trait.

".... hey. Why do I have to face such an experience!?"

Aphrodite screamed after realizing the dangerous situation she placed herself in.

"Hey, hey! Didn't D say she would do anything?"

"Uuuu... I certainly said it but..... I said it but....! I didn't hear about being placed as a decoy! There is something called limits, isn't there! "

Right now.

Aphrodite is being crucified on a tree trunk near the tree where the cockatrice is resting.

Bound with rope, Aphrodite's breasts were bared with a pleasant feeling and her butt became exposed, bringing about a lewd atmosphere.

By the way, this rope is a special product which Sheryl manufactured by using the vine of a plant.

I named it..... Operation Cockatrice Seduction!

I guaranteed victory with the plan I had thought of this time.

"Souta is a demon! The devil! In spite of the uselessly refreshing name Kazehaya Souta! He is nothing but a brutal person!"

The name has nothing to do with it. It's just a name.

"Well, don't say that. This is a task that only you, the goddess of beauty, can do."

"Only I... can do this task.....!?"

“That’s right. If it’s an ordinary girl, isn’t it impossible to tempt a monster? This is a task that only the goddess of beauty, Aphrodite, can do!”

“.....!?”

Persuaded by me, Aphrodite had an expression like she suddenly realized something.

“Fufu. Fufufu. It can’t be helped~. Mou~~. Because without me, Souta can’t do anything~”

“Yeah, I’m always being helped by D.”

Naturally, it is all a lie.

I do not think that monster bird would understand the appeal of a woman’s body.

I can’t say it in front of that person no matter what, but—.

Because this fellow with her extraordinary vitality would not get easily get injured in the event of an accident, I felt it was most suitable to make her the decoy.

“Master.....normally seems like he wouldn’t even hurt a bug, but sometimes he does surprisingly horrible things.”

“Skillfully deceiving the goddess with compliments and making her the scapegoat...Souta-san is cruel...He’s a brute...”

Caroline and Cheryl, who saw through my thinking, inserted stinging tsukkomis.

Ku...

Even if it’s me, won’t I still feel guilty?

However.

I’d like to give defeating the cockatrice the highest priority right now.

Therefore, I can’t afford to choose the means.

If this operation goes well, afterwards let’s buy clothes that Aphrodite likes.

Chapter 38 – Carrying out the strategy

Carrying Out the Strategy

Even though I prepared bait to lure out the cockatrice, this time is the deployment of the monsters.

Above all, the one that holds the most weight in the plan this time is the Mad Marsh.

I prepared for the cockatrice's attack and summoned my monsters one by one, and at the end called the Mad Marsh that was the key.

"Noko~!"

The Mad Marsh with the pink mushroom umbrella let out a weird sound as it wriggled its body back and forth.

I had the Mad Marsh move in front of the tree the cockatrice was sleeping in.

(Mad Marsh...Disorder Powder!)

The unexpectedly long range of this skill was already tested.

The Disorder Power released by two Mad Marshes reached all the way to the cockatrice that was resting in the tree.

"Gugyaaaaaaaaasu!"

Cocaktrice Rank: B Lv 24/30 Current status (Sexually Excited)

Alright!

The first phase of the strategy was a success!

When I used Judgement Eyes, I was able to confirm that the cockatrice's status became Sexually Excited.

(D. It's gone smoothly up to now! I'll count on you for the rest!)

(Un. OK!)

Having confirmed that the strategy went well, I gave the sign to the goddess who was tied up by vines.

"Ufu~n. Cockatrice-cha~n! Come here and do nice things with me♥"

After confirming my sign, Aphrodite took a sexy pose while unnaturally calling out.

The cockatrice that fell to its arousal flew low like it was crawling on the ground and approached Aphrodite.

However—.

“Gyaaaaa! Souta!! Quick Souta! Save me!!”

Where’s the seduction from up until a while ago—?

Having lost to the intensity of the approaching cockatrice, Aphrodite cried out while struggling with her arms and legs.

(Goblin Knights! Assemble into formation!)

I hurled instructions to the ten Goblin Knights who were deployed in advance and sealed the cockatrice’s movements.

I can think of two movement patterns for the cockatrice from here.
It can avoid the Goblin Knights in front of it, or plunge in without care.

“Gugooooooooooooooooo!”

The effectiveness of its arousal is terrifying!
The result is the second one.

The aroused cockatrice charged at the heavyweight Goblin Knights without slowing down at all.

The moment when the cockatrice collided with the Goblin Knights, the best chance arrived.

(Light Marsh...Numbing Powder!)

I gave an order to the Light Marshes who were deployed ahead of time and they fired their spores at the stopped cockatrice.

“Gegegegege!”

The cockatrice, which had inhaled a ton of spores, blew up a huge cloud of dust rolling around on the ground like a caterpillar and moving its huge wings.

“Ku.... This guy!”

Even though its movements were sealed with numbness, it was resisting violently.

If the other party recovers from numbness, it’ll be troublesome.
If it escapes to the air I won’t have a way to beat the cockatrice next time.

I ordered the Goblin Knights to try and hold down the cockatrice.

“Gugyaaaaasu!”

But because it didn’t stop moving, the number of monsters gradually increased and opposed it.

The result—.

Around when I had sent 14 Goblin Knights, they somehow succeeded in rendering it powerless.

After a little while, the cockatrice convulsed and unbelievably became docile.

I confirmed that the match was over and stroked my chest in relief.

Chapter 39 – At the slave merchants

At the Slave Merchant's

I want to talk about what happened after that.

When I returned with the cockatrice's head as the proof of subjugation, there was a tremendous uproar at the Adventurer's Guild.

This was a story that could be understood afterwards, but it seemed like the cockatrice I defeated was a female near her breeding season.

The evidence for that was the large egg in her nest.

I was a bit surprised that the cockatrice was aroused by Aphrodite, but if I think about it now I understand.

It had probably left the monsters that had become bait hanging in the branches in preparation for raising young.

Because it seemed that I would be able to sell the defeated cockatrice's scales for a large sum, I passed the materials I stripped off to Sheryl.

Because she helped out with the commission this time too, it's appropriate to prepare proper compensation.

~~~~~

Several days after subduing the cockatrice.

Having received the promised 3 million col from the Adventurers' Guild, I went to the Bakuraja Company to pay off Sheryl's debt.

"It's no good. This small amount is definitely not sufficient, y'know?"

After taking the bag with precisely 300 gold coins from me, the debt collector gave off a mean smile.

"...What are you talking about?"

“Rich adventurer-san~. Do you know what interest is? You can’t maintain an old debt for a long time at the same amount.”

“I see. I know what interest is. By the way, about how much is remaining after that amount?”

“Hmm. Wait a bit. I’ll calculate it now.”

The Mohican man looked over the documents in his hands while making an expression like he was stifling a yawn.

“Well, about 3 million col. If you can prepare just that amount, this talk of becoming a slave can be forgotten.”

“.....”

I was sure listening up to there.

This man wasn’t planning to accept the repayment of the debt from the beginning.

Because I prepared such a large sum as 3 million col in a short time, the other side misunderstood that I was the young master of some nice place or something like that.

At any rate, he was definitely planning to wring out from me what he could.

“How about it? That’s right. There are the results this time, so how about next I give you two weeks?”

“Don’t joke around. Such a request...”

“I’ll pay.”

The one who unexpectedly interrupted me was Sheryl, who had accompanied me there.

Sheryl put a bag with money on the table with a loud thump.

“...Hey.”

“With this I’m free! I humbly apologize for all the trouble until today.”

“Y-you!? How did you get this much money!?”

Without paying attention to the flustered Mohican, Sheryl rose soundly from her seat.

“Ye-yeah.”

With a refreshing smile as if a demon just fell, Sheryl pulled my sleeve and we left the store.

Nevertheless, a big sum like 3 million col...just how did she prepare that?

I heard that the scales from the cockatrice only sold for about 300,000 col.

“Wait up. Just now I was wrong! It was a joke! I corrected the calculation and the interest is 5 million col! Therefore, with just this amount, let’s restart the conversation about selling you as a slave!”

The debt collector rushed to stand in front of the door and blocked our escape.

This bastard...how much of a brute is he!?

He got 3 million each from me and Sheryl, for a total of 6 million col, so wouldn’t it be fine if he just withdrew obediently?

He doesn’t seem to know when to give up....

No, that’s wrong.

When looking at his impatience, it’s what you would see if he had already completed the negotiations for Sheryl earlier.

If I assume that he’s in a situation where he can’t cancel the contract no matter how much money he gathers, then I can somewhat understand him.

“...Souta-san.”

To Sheryl who looked at me uneasily and tugged my sleeve, I spoke encouragingly.

Different from earlier, this time I was probably able to clearly comfort her.

Sheryl silently nodded.

“Step back! Brute!”

“...Hah! I’m not an idiot who withdraws when I’m told to withdraw! You should just shut up and prepare money for me!”

The debt collector pulled a dagger out from his breast and threatened us.

It’d be pointless to talk anymore.

That’s right.

There is a perfect monster to punish this man.

“Go. Werewolf.”

With all its might, the werewolf I summoned from inside the ball knocked the man standing in front of the door off his feet.

“...Guga!”

The man who let out a bitter groan flew five meters. Blood was pouring from his face and his body was convulsing.

“I’ll warn you. Don’t appear in front of us again a second time. Next time we meet I’ll definitely crush your head, alright?”

“...Obo. Obobo.”

With blood frothing out of his mouth, he became teary-eyed and nodded.

In this situation...his long-awaited money will probably disappear into the doctor’s bill.

With this, after much trouble—.

I was able to resolve the problems surrounding Sheryl and the girls.

Having been able to stop his subordinate’s violent acts, the werewolf (previously Bakurajasan) was certainly crying in joy.

Chapter 40 – Epilogue ~ The third companion ~

---

Epilogue ~ The 3rd Companion

“...I see. So in the end, you sold the shop, huh?”

“Yez. I was already thinking about it a little bit, so I just went and sold it.”

Having left the slave trader's, I was inquiring about the source of the 3 million col that Sheryl had prepared.

“But is that alright? It was the precious shop your master had left you, right?”

“Yes. But, it's ok. I was planning to get out of the shop once and search in earnest for my master. The way I've been living, being forced to work, I haven't gotten any clues with which to search for my master. I think that is more important than being obsessed about my work.”

“Yeah. That's a good thought, huh?”

If Sheryl's master was alive—.

That person too probably wouldn't wish to see her bound to the shop and become unhappy.

“And so...Souta-zan. This time, I earnestly have something I wish to ask, but.... Please...could you let me be one of your companions?” Sheryl said with her eyes burning determinedly.

“Yez! Even though I wanted to travel, because the only thing I can do is make things.... If Souta-zan would accept me as his personal blacksmith...that would really help me.”

“.....”

There is nothing to feel guilty about!

My long-term goal in this world is to defeat the demon king who was predicted to revive at some point.

Sheryl's master cut off communication after going to subjugate demons.

In that case, she can probably find clues by travelling with me.

“Wait. Souta. You aren't...thinking something wicked, are you?”

“Master. Are you planning to do something horrible even to her...?”

Aphrodite and Carolina, who noticed my ulterior motives, raised criticizing voices.

“R-really!?”

“Uh-huh. But, there is one condition. Sheryl. Can you stand over there with your back turned for a bit?”

“Ummm. Like thiz?”

“Yeah. Like that. It’s a good feeling.”

I threw the capsule ball at Sheryl’s defenseless back.

“Na!? What the heck...is this!?”

The capsule ball suddenly radiated a dazzling light and sucked up Sheryl’s body.

The result.

Before I knew it, Sheryl’s body had completely entered the capsule ball.

“Wh-where is thiz!? L-let me out~!?”

Confused by the sudden situation, Sheryl teared up and beat on the inner walls of the ball.

Having acquired the third beautiful girl, I

Speaking honestly...there will be a lot of worries living in a different world from now on.

Will I ever be able to safely return to Japan?

Before that...will I be able to defeat the demon lord?

There is still a mountain of problems, but even if I worry about it there’s nothing I can do.

For the time being, let’s reflect upon the joy of being able to meet my third companion.

The Morning of the BeginningThe Second Chapter Starts Today

One morning.

When I opened my eyes, there were three beautiful girls sleeping on the same bed.

“....”

While rubbing my drowsy eyes, I checked the state of each of those three.

“Munyamunya.... Souta...still eating—?”

First, the name of the beautiful girl snoring and hugging a dakimakura near me was Aphrodite.

Aphrodite, with her extraordinary blonde-haired, blue-eyed figure, was the self-proclaimed goddess of beauty and had a flawless appearance.

Even now it felt like my reason was going to fly away staring at her two breasts that were peeking out through the gap in her nightclothes and that were so big they were about to fall out.

“Suu.... Master...I’m so happy. You have finally noticed your true identity....”

Next, the name of the girl apologetically sleeping on the edge of the bed was Carolina Burton.

Carolina, who had silver hair and red eyes and who was slender and well-proportioned, gave off a bewitching appeal different from Aphrodite’s.

Carolina, who was born into the unique race of vampires, was surprising because, with this appearance, she was already over 300 years old.

“Souta-zan...there is no good! It’s embarrassing.... As I thought...Souta-zan is a brute....”

And the last introduction.

The name of the girl with bad sleeping posture and who had fallen half off the bed was Sheryl O’Telrod.

Before she met me, Sheryl was managing a weapons store, but due to unavoidable circumstances she is now travelling with me.

Sheryl, who had a short stature of 150 centimeters<sup>2</sup>, was endowed with the cuteness of a mascot, unlike the other two.

Alright.

There were various places to tsukkomi, but let me just say this.

You guys...what kinds of dreams are you all having!?

Sharing a bed with beautiful girls is supposed to be good, but because this room was originally rented for one person, I was unable to sleep well for various reasons.

Previously, the three of them had obediently stayed in the ball without complaint, but recently there were many times where they wanted to leave one way or another.

Muu....

In order to protect my pleasant sleep, I somehow have to come up with a countermeasure.

Let's try listening to their reasons once they wake up.

~~~~~

"Eh~. Before we venture out today, I want to talk to you guys."

An hour later.

I peeled Aphrodite, who wouldn't wake up no matter how much time passed, off the bed, gathered the three of them, and began speaking formally.

"What is it, so suddenly? Was it necessary to disturb the sleep of I, the goddess of beauty?"

"....."

Because she was woken up forcibly, Aphrodite was clearly unhappy.

I prefer this to having my sleep disturbed, but....

She always ends up putting her fiendish breasts on display when she wakes up!

"Recently you guys seem to blatantly hate being inside the ball but...is there a reason?"

"" ""

When I asked them that, I felt like the three of them blatantly averted their eyes.

According to what Aphrodite said earlier—.

Inside the ball is a complete environment unimaginable by Earth's common sense where you don't get hungry or thirsty and where stress won't accumulate.

Why would they choose the cramped bed over such a pleasant environment?

I've thought something was strange for a while now.

"Th-that is...that! Certainly the comfort inside the ball is good but...all the same, I'm tired of being restricted in what I can do."

"...I see. You're tired of the inside of the ball, huh?"

It can't be helped that I don't understand since I've never been inside it, but since the person who has said so, it must be so.

"Caro, do you have the same reason?"

"No. If I had to say, I come out with the goal of monitoring if Aphrodite is going to attempt a yobai³ with you, Master."

"Haaaaaa!? Wait! Caro! Who is going to go after whom!?"

Aphrodite, having received Carolina's remark, blushed furiously and denounced it.

"You already have a previous offense, don't you? When you received the Mad Marsh's Disorder Powder...don't tell me you forgot?"

"Uu. C-certainly I feel like there was such a thing, but.... That was more like an accident...."

The Mad Marsh's Disorder Powder, which was effective at inflicting a "Sexually Excited" status on the target, was effective at destroying the reason of living creatures.

Having been admonished by Carolina, Aphrodite withered like her authority earlier was a lie.

"By the way, what's your reason, Sheryl?"

"Umm. It's not that I was bored, but... when the other two were outside, I was lonely being the only one inside the ball."

"I see. There are various reasons, huh...."

In any case, I was able to identify the cause of the disturbance.

Having gotten to the bottom of things, it seems that Aphrodite's boredom inside the ball was the beginning of everything.

In that case, I can only think of one way to resolve it!

It should be fine if I put things in the ball that can distract from boredom.

And so I listened to the requests the three girls had for supplies inside the ball.

~~~~~

"Eh? Things I want to use inside the ball? Hmm. Well. ...I guess a high-class, fluffy bed like the one I used when I was in heaven?"

"It doesn't matter to me what kind of good if it's something I can receive from master. But, if I had to give a specific example, probably books? I think that if there were a library in the ball then everyone would be able to stave off boredom."

“For me, definitely materials to make weapons! The moments when I process high-quality materials is a time of supreme bliss for me!”

And so when I listened to the girls’ requests for items to bring into the ball, the result was as below.

Aphrodite → A fluffy canopy bed

Carolina → A library with books from anywhere and any time

Sheryl → Ores that have the toughness and stickiness<sup>4</sup> necessary to make weapons

Ku....

They gave me requests with a considerably high difficulty.

Sheryl was especially awful.

What the heck are “Ores that have toughness and stickiness” ...?

This already transcends the level of supplies!

But.

They are not things I couldn’t gather if I received money from quests.

This doesn’t mean that I have a problem that needs solved quickly.

Let’s aim to acquire the things they requested in a short time.

I headed to the Adventurers’ Guild with a new determination.

“Congratulations! After consideration...Souta-san’s adventurer rank has been raised to F Rank!”

When I arrived at the Adventurers’ Guild, the receptionist Chloe-chan congratulated me.

By the way, Chloe-chan is a high-level beauty with a small body and shoulder-length black hair.

Her cat ears on top of her head are too splendid!

“Umm.... Is that something to be happy about!”

In the first place, is F Rank something good?

Because there are eight adventurer ranks from S to G, I felt that one rank-up wasn’t a big deal.

“Of course! Honestly, Souta-san’s leveling speed is exceptional even among the exceptions. They say it normally takes a novice adventurer one year to raise their rank to F!

It seems that the guild assessed Souta-san’s service in the Cockatrice Subjugation Quest the other day.”

“Is that so?”

Certainly, the cockatrice I fought before was a fierce enemy.

"Due to your adventurer rank rising, new quests that you can accept have been added! For the full details, please look at the guild board."

"Understood."

Having received Chloe-chan's explanation, I went to the board with jobs posted for F Rank adventurers.

Then after ten minutes.

The quests I noticed this time are as below.

Look!

These quests overflowing with romance!

These ores can all be collected at the Ares Mine area, which is a two-hour walk from Saint Bell.

It's hard to understand because the reward is gram unit price, but it seems to be quite favorable conditions.

To the say the least, the highest rank "platinum ore" is three times the price of the "gold ore".

In other words...it's possible to get rich quick if I by some mistake obtain a large quantity of platinum ore.

...And, well, even I don't expect things to go well to that extent.

It's be a stroke of luck if I could find the "Ores that have the toughness and stickiness necessary to make weapons" that Sheryl requested in this mine.

Having accepted new quests, I lightly headed off to Ares Mine.

Chapter 43

To the Mine

We promptly walked out of Saint Bell, and finally arrived at our destination.

“This is Ares Mine, huh?”

How do I say it, it seemed like cheese filled with holes.

There were countless entrances along the vertical slope of the mine.

Goblin Elite Rank F LV 4/10

Oh—!

Isn't that the evolved form of the goblin, Goblin Elite, over there!?

I guess the goblin elites live on this rocky mountain.

They're precious materials for combinations, but let's ignore them since the ball won't reach if I throw it from here.

“Ares Mine is an area where many miners once commuted to from Saint Bell.

But I heard that the mining has been left to adventurers because recently the profits have been going down and the number of monsters appearing has increased.”

“As expected of Caro. She's well-informed.”

“...Thank you for those words of which I am unworthy. However, if it is regarding knowledge in this field, Sheryl-san should know it much better.”

Since that point was raised, I looked to Sheryl, but somehow her body was trembling oddly.

“Uoooooooo! It's the mine after a long time! My blood iz boiling!”

Suddenly Sheryl brandished the guild-issued pickaxe with a hum.

Hold on.

Being motivated is good, but no matter what, isn't her tension too high?

"Ah. Right. Perhaps Sheryl's race, the gnomes, really loves earth and stone?"

"As expected of Souta-zan! That's exactly it!"

The knowledge I cultivated in games is useful.

It seems that my expectations were right on the mark.

"We gnomes were originally called 'Spirits of the Earth'. We eat the ores taken from places like this. If tasty-looking ores are found, we head right over!"

"I-is that so...?"

No matter how much her appearance is that of a beautiful girl, the figure of her happily eating ore would be somewhat severe.

Let's pretend I didn't hear what she just said.

While thinking that, I headed inside the mine.
